The United States of America, To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas, by the acts of Congress approved July 1, 1862, as amended by the act of July 2, 1864 to aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph line from the Missouri River to the Pacific Ocean to secure to the Government the use of the same for postal, military and other purposes; authority is given to the 'Union Pacific Company' to construct a railroad and telegraph line under certain conditions and stipulations as expressed in said acts; and provision is made for granting to the said company every alternate section of public land designated by odd numbers to the amount of ten alternate sections per mile on each side of the said railroad on the line thereof, and within the limits of twenty miles on each side of said road, not sold, reserved, or otherwise disposed of by the United States, and to which a Preemption or Homestead claim may not have attached at the time the line of said road is definitely fixed.

And Whereas an official statement bearing date November 3rd 1869, and verified by the signature of the Secretary of the Interior has been filed in the General Land Office, showing that the Commissioners, appointed by the President, under provisions of the sixth section of the said act of Congress approved July 1, 1862,
