If any portion of the property is not utilized for such buildings, Lessee has the option to use the remaining portion on the same terms.

Lessor warrants the title of said leasehold for the term herein mentioned. In the event that lessor shall decide to sell the property upon which lessee's structure(s) are located and enters into an agreement to sell or receives an offer to purchase either which lessor is willing to accept lessor agrees to first offer the property to lessee on the same terms and conditions and lessee shall have thirty days in which to enter into an agreement to purchase with lessor.
