For purposes of this power of sale, Beneficiary may elect to treat as personal property any Property which is intangible or which can be severed from the Land or Improvements without causing structural damage. If it chooses to do so, Beneficiary may dispose of any personal property in any manner permitted by Article 9 of the Code, including any public or private sale, or in any manner permitted by any other applicable law.

(i) Single or Multiple Foreclosure Sales. If the Property consists of more than one lot, parcel, or item of property, Beneficiary may:

(i) designate the order in which the lots, parcels, and/or items shall be sold or disposed of or offered for sale or disposition; and

(ii) if it chooses to have more than one Foreclosure Sale, Beneficiary at its option may cause the Foreclosure Sales to be held simultaneously or successively, on the same day, or on such different days and at such different times and in such order as it may deem to be in its best interests. No Foreclosure Sale

4.3 Application of Foreclosure Sale Proceeds. The proceeds of any Foreclosure Sale shall be applied in the following manner:

- (d) Fourth, to remit the remainder, if any, to the person or persons entitled thereto.

5. RELEASE OF LIEN.

If the entities constituting Trustor, jointly and severally, shall fully pay and perform all of the Secured Obligations and comply with all of the other terms and provisions hereof and the Note to be performed and complied with by the entities constituting Trustor, jointly and severally, then Beneficiary shall release this Deed of Trust and the lien thereof by proper instrument upon payment, performance, and discharge of all of the Secured Obligations and payment by the entities constituting Trustor, jointly and severally, of any filing fee in connection with such release.
