March 20, 1921

Dolores, Co. Ariz.

Dolores, Co. Ariz. - March 20, 1921. The following is a record of the day's observations at the summit of Mount Dolores. The weather was clear and cold, with a high wind blowing from the west. The temperature was about 60°F. The sky was blue and there were no clouds. The sun was bright and the shadows were sharp. The ground was dry and the grass was green. The trees were tall and the flowers were in bloom. The birds were singing and the insects were flying. The air was fresh and the water was clear. The mountains in the background were majestic and the sky was vast. The day was beautiful and令人难忘.
