1. Annual Meeting. The first annual meeting of the Members shall be held on the 15th day of June, 1976. Thereafter an annual meeting of the Members shall be held on the 15th day in June of each succeeding year. The time of the meeting shall be 7:30 p.m. If the day fixed for the annual meeting falls on a legal holiday in the State of Utah, such meeting shall be held on the next succeeding business day. The purpose of the annual meeting shall be the election of the directors and the transaction of such other business as may come before the Members. If the election of directors is not filed on the day designated herein for the annual meeting, the Board of Directors shall cause such election to be held at a special meeting of the Members as soon thereafter as is convenient.

A plurality shall be sufficient for the election of a candidate.

8. Necessary Vote. Except as concerns the election of directors and except with respect to those proposals which under the Articles, under the Declaration, or by law require a greater proportion for adoption, the affirmative vote of a majority of all those which members present in person or represented by proxy are entitled to cast at a meeting shall be sufficient for the adoption of any matter voted on by the Members.

(a) adopt and publish rules and regulations governing the use of the Common Areas, and personal conduct of the Members and their guests thereon, and

(b) suspend the voting rights and right to use of the recreational facilities of a Member during a period in which such Member shall be in default in the payment of any assessment levied by the Association. Such rights may also be suspended after notice and hearing, for a period not to exceed 90 days for infraction of published rules and regulations;

(c) exercise for the Association of powers, duties, authority vested in or delegated to the Association and not reserved to the membership by other provisions of these By-Laws, the Articles, or the Declaration;

(d) issue, or to cause an appropriate officer to issue, upon demand by any person, a certificate setting forth whether or not any assessment has been paid. A reasonable charge may be made by the Board for the issuance of these certificates. (g) cause the exterior of the Living Units and the Common Areas to be maintained as set forth in the Declaration.

VI. NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

1. Nomination. Nomination for election to the Board of Directors shall be made by a Nominating Committee. Nominations may also be made from the floor at the annual meeting. The Nominating Committee shall consist of a chairman, who shall be a member of the Board of Directors, and two or more members of the Association. The Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors prior to each annual meeting of the Members, to serve from the close of such annual meeting until the close of the next annual meeting and such appointment shall be announced at each annual meeting. Such nominations may be made from among the Members.

2. Election. Elections to the Board of Directors shall be made by secret written ballot. At such election the Members or their proxies may cast, in respect to each vacancy, as many votes as they are entitled to exercise under the provisions of the Articles.

VII. MEETING OF DIRECTORS

1. Regular Meetings. A regular annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held without notice other than this section immediately after, and at the same place as, the annual meeting of the Members. Such notice shall be deemed to have been properly furnished if mailed postage prepaid at least three business days before the meeting date to each Director at his address. Attendance of a Director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting unless the Director attends for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not properly called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at nor the purpose of any meeting need be specified in the notice thereof.

4. Quorum. A majority of the Directors then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board. The act of a majority of the Directors at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute the act of the Board of Directors unless the act of a greater number is required by law.

5. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining Directors, even though such remaining Directors constitute less than a quorum. A Director thus selected to fill a vacancy shall serve for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office.

If such a committee is not appointed, the Board itself shall perform the duties required of the committee.

2. Manner of Acting. The act, concurrence, or determination of any two or more committee members, whether such act, concurrence, or determination occurs at a meeting, without a meeting, at the same time, or at different times, shall constitute the act or determination of the committee.

3. Compensation. The Board of Directors may provide by resolution that members of the Committee shall be paid specified and reasonable compensation for their services as committee members.

4. No Liability for Damages. The committee shall not be held liable for damages by reason of any action, inaction, approval, or disapproval by it with respect to any request made pursuant to Article VIII of the Declaration.

Each Officer shall hold office until his successor has been duly elected and qualifies or until he is removed. Any Officer may be removed by the Board whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Association would be served thereby.

3. Vacancies. A vacancy in office resulting from death, resignation, removal, or any other cause shall be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired portion of the term of the person previously in office.

The President shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of President and such other duties as may from time to time be prescribed by the Board of Directors.

5. Vice-President. In the absence of the President or in the event of his death, inability, or refusal to act, the Vice-President shall perform all of the duties of the President. When so acting he shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions upon, the President. The Vice-President shall perform such duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the President or by the Board of Directors.

X. ASSESSMENTS.

L. As more fully provided in the Declaration, each Member is obligated to pay to the Association monthly and special assessments which are secured by a continuing lien upon the Lot against which the assessment is made. Any assessment which is not paid when due shall be delinquent. If the assessment is not paid within thirty days after the due date, the assessment shall bear interest from the date of delinquency at the rate of 12% per annum, and the Association may bring an action at law against the Owner personally obligated to pay the same or foreclose the lien against the Lot, and interest, cost, and reasonable attorney's fees of any such action shall be added to the amount of such assessment. No Owner may waive or escape liability for the assessments provided for herein by non-use of the Common Areas or abandonment of his Lot.

XI. AMENDMENTS

1. These By-Laws may be amended, at a regular or a special meeting of the Board of Directors, by a vote of the majority or a quorum of Directors present.
