Claimant claims a lien upon the above-described property for amounts owing for furnishing materials and labor, for Tesla Solar Roofing, in connection with the improvement of said real property. Claimant was employed by Wohali Builders, LLC and furnished the construction work to Wohali Builders, LLC. There is currently believed to be owed $489,492.63, which principal amount will change should additional credits or charges be discovered. Claimant furnished the first work for the project on the dates listed in the table above, and the last construction work is ongoing. If the lien claimant prevails on the enforcement of this lien, the claimant will also seek recovery of its lien filing fees, interest, costs, and attorney's fees.

NOTICE: PROTECTION AGAINST LIENS AND CIVIL ACTION. Notice is hereby provided in accordance with Section 38-11-108 of the Utah Code that under Utah law an "owner" may be protected against liens being maintained against an "owner-occupied residence" and from other civil action being maintained to recover monies owed for "qualified services" performed or provided by suppliers and subcontractors as a part of this contract, if either section

(1) or (2) is met: (1)(a) the owner entered into a written contract with an original contractor, a factory built housing retailer, or a real estate developer; (b) the original contractor was properly licensed or exempt from licensure under Title 58, Chapter 55, Utah Construction Trades Licensing Act at the time the contract was executed; and (c) the owner paid in full the contracting entity in accordance with the written contract and any written or oral amendments to the contract; or (2) the amount of the general contract between the owner and the original contractor totals no more than $5,000.” An owner who can establish compliance with either section (1) or (2) may perfect the owner’s protection by applying for a Certificate of Compliance with the Division of Occupational and Professional Licensing. The application is available at www.dopl.utah.gov/rtrf
