LIENS AND CIVIL ACTION

NOTICE IS HEREBY PROVIDED in accordance with §58-55-501, §58-55-603, of the Utah Code and under Utah law when a contractor performs services for a contractor and that contractor is paid for the project it is the duty of the contractor to compensate the subcontractor for his services. When a contractor fails to compensate those who also worked on a project after having received compensation he is participating in unlawful conduct as defined under §58-55-501 of the Utah Code. Under §58-55-603, of the Utah code, when a contractor receives any construction funds from an owner or another contractor for work performed and billed, he shall pay each of his subcontractor and suppliers in proportion to the percentage of the work they performed under that billing and if the contractor fails to pay for worked performed by his subcontractors or suppliers he shall pay to the subcontractor or supplier, in addition to the payment, interest in the amount of 1% per month of the amount due, beginning on the day after payment was due, and reasonable cost of any collection and attorney's fees. Furthermore under 58-55-602, all unpaid construction funds are payable to the contractor, retention of proceeds must be done according to §13-8-5 of the Code. If any payment is retained or withheld, it shall be retained or withheld and released as provided in §13-8-5(i) which states that retention of proceeds, meaning money earned by a contractor or subcontractor is retained by the owner, must be done pursuant to the terms of a construction contract to guarantee payment or performance by the contractor or subcontractor of the construction contract.

PROTECTION AGAINST LIENS AND CIVIL ACTION

NOTICE IS HEREBY PROVIDED in accordance with §38-11-107 and §38-11-108 of the Utah Code that under Utah law an "owner" may be protected against liens being maintained against an "owner-occupied residence" and from other civil action being maintained to recover monies owed for "qualified services" performed or provided by suppliers and subcontractors as part of this contract. If either section (1) or (2) is met: (1)(a) the owner entered into a written contract with an original contractor, a factory built housing retailer, or a real estate developer; (b) the original contractor was properly licensed or exempt from licensure under Title 58, Chapter 55, Utah Construction Trades Licensing Act at the time the contract was executed; and (c) the owner paid in full the contracting entity in accordance with the written contract and any written or oral amendments to the contract; or (2) the amount of the general contract between the owner and the original contractor totals no more than $5,000." (3) An owner who can establish compliance with either section (1) or (2) may perfect the owner's protection by applying for a Certificate of Compliance with the Division of Occupational and Professional Licensing. The application is available at www.dopl.utah.gov/rlrf.
