That we, Elmer H. Brown and Maxine S. Brown, his wife, of Roy, in Weber County, State of Utah, being the owners of the real property hereinafter described do hereby certify and declare that the following restrictive covenants are hereby imposed upon all lots embraced within Great Basin Addition to Roy, Utah, as platted and described as follows:

Lots 1 to 12 inclusive in Block 1; Lots 1 to 22 inclusive in Block 2; Lots 1 to 31 inclusive in Block 3; Lots 1 to 15 inclusive in Block 4; Lots 1 to 9 inclusive in Block 5; Lots 1 to 8 inclusive in Block 6; and Lots 1 to 11 inclusive in Block 7, being a total of 111 Lots in said Great Basin Addition to Roy City, Weber County, State of Utah.

The covenants hereinafter specifically set forth are to run with the land and shall be binding on all parties and all persons claiming under them until ten years from date, at which time said covenants shall be automatically extended for successive periods of five years unless by a vote of a majority of the then owners of said lots it is agreed to change said covenants in whole or in part.

If any party hereto, their heirs or assigns shall violate or attempt to violate any of the covenants herein contained to be kept by them it shall be lawful for any other person or persons owning any real property situated in said sub-division to prosecute any proceedings at law or in equity against the person or persons violating or attempting to violate the same, either to enjoin or prohibit any such violation or for damages or other compensation or both for any such violation.

In the event any of the covenants herein contained or any part thereof be declared invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction the remainder thereof shall in no ways be effected by such judgment, but shall remain in full force and effect.

1. All lots in said tract shall be known and described as residential lots. No structures shall be erected, altered, placed or permitted to remain upon any lot other than one detached single family dwelling; such dwelling not to exceed two and one-half stories in height, a private garage for no more than two cars and other out buildings approved in advance in writing by the committee.

2. No building shall be erected, placed or altered upon any lot in said sub-division until the building plans and specifications and the plot plan, showing the location of such building upon such lot, shall have been approved, in writing, as to the conformity and harmony of external design with existing structures in the sub-division and as to location of the structure with respect to topography and finished ground elevation. The committee authorized to examine the same shall consist of Elmer H. Brown, Benton M. Clay and Roy Tullis, all of Roy, Weber County, Utah. Said committee may, in writing, designate by a majority of its members, a representative to act in the place and stead of said committee. In the event of their death or resignation of any member of said committee, the remaining member or members shall have full authority to approve or disapprove any design or location presented to them or to designate a representative to act for them and in their stead. In the event any plans, specifications or locations shall not be approved or disapproved in writing within 30 days after the same have been submitted to the committee, or in any event, if not suit to enjoin the erection of any proposed structure or the making of any such alteration has been commenced prior to the completion thereof, the same shall be considered approved and this covenant fully complied with. Neither the members of this committee nor its designated representative shall be entitled to any compensation for services performed pursuant to this covenant. The powers and duties of said committee and the members thereof shall cease on and after ten years from date. Thereafter the approval described in this covenant shall not be required, unless prior to said date and effective thereon, a written instrument shall be executed by the then record owners of a majority of the lots in the sub-division and duly recorded extending or continuing the duration of said committee and its powers.
