The members of the Committee and their successors in office shall have the first right and option to purchase or lease such unit or interest therein upon the same terms, which option shall be exercisable for a period of thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice. If said option is not exercised by the Committee within said thirty (30) days, the unit owner (or lessee) may, at the expiration of said thirty-day period, contract to sell or lease (or sublease or assign) such unit or interest therein to the proposed purchaser, assignee or lessee named in such notice upon the terms specified therein.

Any unit owner other than the Declarant who wishes to make a gift of his unit or any interest therein, or who wishes to transfer his unit or any interest therein for a consideration other than cash, or notes (secured or unsecured) of such transferee, or the assumption of an existing indebtedness, to any person other than the spouse of such unit owner, shall give to the Committee not less than sixty (60) days written notice of his or her intent to make such gift or other transfer prior to the contemplated date thereof. Said notice shall state the contemplated date of said gift or other transfer, the intended donee or transferee, and the terms in detail of such proposed other transfer and such other information as the Committee shall reasonably require. The members of the Committee and their successors in office shall have the first right and option to purchase said unit or interest therein for cash at fair market value. The Committee's option to purchase the unit or interest therein shall expire ten (10) months after the date of receipt by it of special notice. If said option is not exercised by the Committee within said ten (10) months, the Unit Owner at the expiration of said ten (10) months, and within sixty (60) days thereafter, may complete, or contract to complete, the proposed gift or other transfer upon the terms stated in the notice to the Committee.

Where title to a unit is owned by one or more co-owners, and one of said co-owners is the parent of one or more other co-owners, then in the event of the death of the co-owner who is a parent as aforesaid, or in the event that any unit owner dies leaving a will devising his or her unit, or any interest therein, to any person other than the spouse of such unit owner, or in the event that any unit owner dies intestate and, under the Rules of Descent of the State of Utah, as amended, title to his unit will pass in whole or in part to any person other than the spouse of such unit owner, the members of the Committee and their successors in office shall have an option to purchase said unit or interest therein from the estate of the deceased unit owner, or from the devisee or devisees named in such will if no power of sale is conferred by said will upon the personal representative named therein, for cash at fair market value.

the members of the Committee and their successors in office shall have an irrevocable option to purchase such unit or interest therein at the same price for which it was sold at said sale. The unit owner of the unit being sold shall, upon request, assign to the Committee any right such owner possesses to purchase at such judicial or execution sale. If said option is not exercised by the Committee within said thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice, it shall thereupon expire and said purchaser may thereafter take possession of said unit. The Committee shall be deemed to have exercised its option if it tenders the required sum of money to the purchaser within said thirty (30) days.

In the event any unit owner shall default in the payment of any monies required to be paid under the provisions of any mortgage or trust deed against his unit, the Committee shall have the right to cure such default by paying the amount so owing to the party entitled thereto, and shall thereon have a lien therefore against such unit ownership, which lien may be perfected and foreclosed in the manner provided in Section 57-8-20 of the Utah Condominium Ownership Act with respect to liens for failures to pay a share of the common expenses.

The Committee shall not exercise any option hereinabove set forth to purchase any unit without the prior written consent of 66 2/3 percent of the unit owners. The members of the Committee, or their duly authorized representatives, may bid to purchase at any auction or sale of the unit or interest therein of any unit owner, deceased or living, which said sale is held pursuant to an order or direction of a court upon the prior written consent of 66 2/3 percent of the unit owners, which said consent shall set forth a maximum price which the Committee is authorized to bid and pay for said unit or interest therein.

A certificate executed and acknowledged by a majority of the Committee stating that the provisions of this Paragraph 14 as herein set forth have been met by a unit owner or duly waived by the Committee, and that the rights of the Committee hereunder have terminated, shall be conclusive upon the Committee and the unit owners in favor of all persons who rely thereon in good faith, and such certificate shall be furnished to any unit owner who has in fact complied with the provisions of this paragraph and whose unit or interest therein has not been acquired as in this paragraph provided, upon request at a reasonable fee not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10.00).

Except as otherwise provided in herein above, the terms of this Paragraph 14 herein above contained, shall not be applicable to the transfer by gift, sale, testate, or intestate succession, operation of law, or otherwise, of the interest of a co-owner of any unit to any other co-owner of the same unit, where such co-owners hold title to such unit as tenants in common or as joint tenants, at the time of the making of such transfer by gift, sale, testate or intestate succession, operation of law, or otherwise.

Where title to any unit is held by a trust, the bequest, assignment, sale, conveyance or other transfer by a beneficiary of such trust of his or her beneficial interest in such trust (other than as security for a bona fide indebtedness) shall be deemed an assignment, sale, conveyance, devise, or other transfer of the unit owned by such a trust.

Where title to any unit is held by a corporation, or a partnership, the transfer or bequest of fifty percent (50%) or more of the issued and outstanding shares of such corporation, or fifty percent (50%) or more of the interest in such partnership shall be deemed a transfer or devise of the unit owned by such corporation or partnership.

Acquisitions of units or interest therein under the provisions of this paragraph shall be made from the maintenance fund. If said fund is insufficient, the Committee shall levy a special assessment against each unit owner in the ratio that his percentage of ownership in the common areas and facilities which assessment shall become a lien and may be perfected and foreclosed in the manner provided in Section 57-8-20 of the Utah Condominium Ownership Act with respect to liens for failure to pay a share of the common expenses. The Committee, in its discretion, may borrow money to finance the acquisition of a unit or interest therein which said acquisition is authorized by this paragraph; provided, however, that no financing may be secured by an encumbrance or hypothecation of any portion of the property other than the unit or interest therein to be acquired.

Units or interest therein acquired pursuant to the terms of this paragraph shall be held of record in the names of the members of the Committee and their successors in office or such nominee or entity as the Committee shall designate, for the use and benefit of all the unit owners in the same proportions that the Committee could levy a special assessment under the terms of the immediately preceding sub-paragraph. Said units or interest therein shall be sold or leased by the Committee for the benefit of the unit owners upon such price and terms as the Committee shall determine. All proceeds of such sale and or leasing shall be deposited in the maintenance fund and may thereafter be disbursed at such time and in such manner as the Committee shall determine.

If a proposed lease of any unit is made by any unit owner, after compliance with the foregoing provisions, a copy of the lease as and when executed shall be furnished by such unit owner to the Committee; and the lessee thereunder, shall be bound by and be subject to all of the obligations of such unit owner with respect to such unit as provided in this Declaration, and the lease shall expressly so provide. The unit owner making any such lease shall not be relieved thereby from any of his obligations. Upon the expiration or termination of such lease, or in the event of any attempted subleasing thereunder, the provisions hereof with respect to the Committee's right of first option shall apply to such unit.

15. Utilities: There is a central water heating system, a central culinary water heating system and a central air conditioning system which service all buildings in the condominium project. The above-described systems, including the boilers, chiller, pumps, and hot water heater there included, shall constitute a part of the common areas and facilities, with the exception of the plumbing and fan coil units which are located within each of the individual condominium units. The maintenance of the above-described fan coil units and interior plumbing shall be the responsibility of each individual unit owner.

All expenses incurred in the operation, maintenance, and improvement of the water, and air conditioning systems are hereby declared to be common expenses and shall be apportioned among the unit owners in accordance with the condominium project by-laws and the rules and regulations of the committee promulgated thereunder. Any expenses incurred in maintenance and repair of those interior plumbing and fan coil units shall be expenses of the individual unit owner and are not included in the common expenses above described.

16. Damage and Destruction: In case of fire, casualty or any other disaster, the insurance proceeds, if sufficient to reconstruct the buildings, shall be applied to such reconstruction. Reconstruction of the buildings, as used in this paragraph, means restoring the buildings to substantially the same condition in which they existed prior to the fire, casualty or other disaster, with each unit and the common area having the same vertical and horizontal boundaries as before. Such reconstruction shall be accomplished by the manager or management committee.

If the insurance proceeds are insufficient to reconstruct the building, damage to or destruction of the building shall be promptly repaired and restored by the manager or management committee, using proceeds of insurance, if any, on the buildings for that purpose, and the unit owners shall be liable for assessment for any deficiency. However, if three-fourths or more of the buildings are destroyed or substantially damaged and if the owners, by a vote of at least three-fourths of the voting power, do not voluntarily, within one hundred days after such destruction or damage, make provision for reconstruction, the manager or management committee shall record, with the County Recorder, a notice setting forth such facts, and upon the recording of such notice:

(a) the property shall be deemed to be owned in common by the owners;

(b) the undivided interest in the property owned in common which shall appertain to each owner shall be the percentage of undivided interest previously owned by such owner in the common area;

(c) any liens affecting any of the condominiums shall be deemed to be transferred in accordance with the existing priorities to the undivided interest of the owner in the property; and

(d) the property shall be subject to an action for partition at the suit of any owner, in which event the net proceeds of sale, together with the net proceeds of the insurance on the property, if any, shall be considered as one fund and shall be divided among all the owners in a percentage equal to the percentage of undivided interest owned by each owner in the common area, after first paying out of the respective shares of the owners, to the extent sufficient for the purposes, all liens on the undivided interest in the property owned by each owner.

Notwithstanding all other provisions hereof, the owners may, by an affirmative vote of at least three-fourths of the voting power, at a meeting of unit owners duly called for such purpose, elect to sell or otherwise dispose of the property. Such action shall be binding upon all unit owners and it shall thereupon become the duty of every unit owner to execute and deliver such instruments and to perform all acts as in manner and form may be necessary to effect the sale.

17. No Partition: There shall be no judicial partition of the project or any part thereof, nor shall Declarant or any person acquiring any interest in the project or any part thereof seek any other judicial partition, until the happening of the conditions set forth in Paragraph 16 hereof in the case of Damage and Destruction or unless the property has been removed from the provisions of the condominium ownership act as provided in Section 57-8-22 of the Act; provided, however, that if any condominium shall be owned by two or more co-tenants as tenants in common or as joint tenants, nothing herein contained shall be deemed to prevent a judicial partition as between such co-tenants. Such partition shall not affect any other condominium.

18. Separate Real Estate Taxes: It is understood that real estate taxes are to be separately taxed to each unit owner for his unit and his corresponding percentage of ownership in the common elements as provided in the Condominium Ownership Act. In the event that for any years such taxes are not separately taxed to each unit owners, but are taxed on the property as a whole, then each unit owner shall pay his proportionate share thereof in accordance with his respective percentage of ownership interest in the common elements.

19. Insurance: The Committee shall obtain and maintain at all times such insurance as the Committee is required to obtain under the provisions of Section 57-8-29 of the Utah Condominium Ownership Act and such other insurance as the Committee deems advisable in the operation, and for the protection, of the property and the units. Any losses under such policies of insurance shall be payable and all insurance proceeds recovered thereunder shall be applied and disbursed in accordance with the provision of this Declaration and the Utah Condominium Ownership Act.

The Committee may engage the services of any bank or trust company authorized to do business in the State of Utah to act as trustee or agent on behalf of the Committee for the purpose of receiving and disbursing the insurance proceeds resulting from any loss, upon such terms as the Committee shall determine consistent with the provisions of this Declaration. In the event of any loss occurring after the first annual meeting of the unit owners is called pursuant to the terms of The By-Laws resulting in the destruction of the major portion of one or more units, the Committee shall engage a corporate trustee as aforesaid upon the written demand of the mortgagee or owner of any unit so destroyed. The fees of such corporate trustee shall be common expenses.

Each unit owner, other than the Declarant shall notify the Committee in writing of any additions, alterations, or improvements to his unit and he shall be responsible for any deficiency in any insurance loss recovery resulting from his failure to notify the Committee. The Committee shall use reasonable effort to obtain insurance on any such additions, alterations, or improvements if such owner requests it to do so and if such owner shall make arrangements satisfactory to the Committee to reimburse it for any additional premiums attributable thereto; and in the absence of insurance on such additions, alterations or improvements, the Committee shall not be obligated to apply any insurance proceeds to restore the affected unit to a condition better than the condition existing prior to the making of such additions, alterations or improvements. All such policies of insurance shall insure additions, alterations or improvements made by the Declarant named in the Declaration. All such policies of insurance shall contain standard mortgage clause endorsements in favor of the mortgagee of each unit and that such policy shall not be terminated cancelled or substantially modified without at least ten (10) days prior written notice to the mortgagee of each unit.

The Committee shall also acquire, make arrangements for and pay for out of the maintenance fund a policy or policies insuring the Committee and the unit owners against any liability, incident to the ownership and or use of those portions of the common areas and facilities not under the exclusive control or occupancy of the unit owners, the liability under which insurance shall not be less than One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) for any one person injured, Three Hundred Thousand Dollars ($300,000.00) for any one accident, and Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) for property damage (such limits to be reviewed at least annually by the Committee and increased in its discretion).

The Committee shall also acquire, make arrangements for and pay for out of the maintenance fund workmen's compensation insurance to the extent necessary to comply with any applicable laws.

20. Violation of Declaration. The proceeds of any such judicial sale shall first be paid to discharge court costs, court reporter charges, reasonable attorney fees and all other expenses of the proceeding sale, and all such items shall be taxed against the defaulting unit owner in said decree. Any balance of proceeds after satisfaction of such charges, and any unpaid assessments hereunder or any liens shall be paid to the unit owner. (a) Each unit owner shall be a member of such corporation, which membership shall terminate upon the sale or other disposition by such members of his unit ownership, at which time the new unit owner shall automatically become a member therein;

(b) The provisions of the By-Laws shall be adopted as the bylaws of such corporation;

(c) The Articles of Incorporation and bylaws shall contain such terms not inconsistent with this Declaration, as the Declarant or the Committee shall deem advisable and desirable;

EXHIBIT "A"

BY-LAWS
OF
CAMELOT CONDOMINIUMS

1. Identity. These are the By-Laws of the Camelot Condominiums.
2. Application. All present or future Unit Owners, tenants, or any other person (s) who might use the facilities of the Camelot Condominium Project in any manner are subject to the regulations set forth in these By-Laws. The mere acquisition or rental of any of the units or the mere act of occupancy or use of any of said Units or the Common Areas will signify that these By-Laws are accepted, ratified, and will be complied with by such persons.
3. Definitions. As hereinabove provided, the terms "majority" or "majority of the unit owners" whenever used herein have the same meaning provided for such terms in Section 57-8-3 of the Utah Condominium Ownership Act. Any specified percentage of the unit owners, whether majority or otherwise, for purposes of voting and for all purposes and wherever provided in the Declaration, shall mean such percentage in the aggregate in interest of the common areas and facilities.
4. Voting Rights. If any unit is owned by more than one person, the right to vote with respect to such unit shall not be divided, but shall be exercised as if the unit owners consisted of only one person in accordance with the proxy or other designation made by the persons constituting such unit owner.
5. Direction and Administration of Property. The direction and administration of the property shall be vested in a Management Committee (herein referred to as the "Committee"), consisting of five persons who shall be elected in the manner hereinafter provided. Each member of the Committee shall be one of the unit owners; provided, however, that in the event a unit owner is a corporation, partnership, trust or other legal entity other than a natural person or persons, then any shareholder, officer or director of such corporation, partner of such partnerships; beneficiary or individual trustee of such trust, or manager of such other legal entity, shall be eligible to serve as a member of the Committee.
6. Elections and term of Committee Quorum. At each annual meeting of the unit owners, the unit owners shall, by a vote of a majority of the unit owners present at such meeting, elect the entire Committee for the forthcoming year. Members of the Committee shall serve without compensation for a term of one (1) year, and until their successors are elected. Vacancies in the Committee shall be filled by a majority vote of the members of the Committee. A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum. The Committee shall act by the vote of the majority of those members present at a meeting of the Committee when a quorum is present.
7. Regular and special Meetings of the Committee. A regular annual meeting of the Committee shall be held immediately after, and at the same place as, the annual meeting of the unit owners. Other meetings of the Committee may be called, held and conducted in accordance with such regulations as the Committee may from time to time adopt.
8. Removal of Committee Member from Office. Any member of the Committee may be removed from the office by the affirmative vote of 66 2/3 percent of the unit owners at a special meeting of the unit owners called for such purpose.

9. Committee Liability and Indemnity. The members of the Committee and the officers thereof shall not be liable to the unit owners for any mistake of judgment, or any acts or omissions made in good faith as such members or officers. The unit owners shall indemnify and hold harmless each of such members or officers against all contractual liability to others arising out of contracts made by such members or officers on behalf of the unit owners unless any such contract shall have been made in bad faith or contrary to the provisions of the Declaration. The liability of any unit owner arising out of any contract made by such members or officers or out of the aforesaid indemnity shall be limited to such proportion of the total liability thereunder as his percentage interest in the common elements bears to the total percentage interest of all the unit owners in the common elements. Each agreement made by such members or officers shall be executed by such members or officers, as agents for the unit owners.

10. Decision of Committee is Final and Binding. In the event of any dispute or disagreement between any unit owners relating to the property, or any question of interpretation or application of the provisions of the Declaration, the determination thereof by the Committee shall be final and binding on each and all of such unit owners.

11. Powers of Committee. The Committee shall have the power:

(a) To engage the services of a manager or managing agent who may be any person, firm or corporation, upon such terms and compensation as the Committee deems fit, and to remove such manager or managing agent at any time;

(b) To engage the service of any persons deemed necessary by the Committee at such compensation deemed reasonable by the Committee in the operation, repair, maintenance and management of the property, and to remove, at any time, any such personnel;

(c) To establish or maintain one or more bank accounts for the deposit of any funds paid to, or received by the Committee;

(d) To make such charges as it sees fit for the use by unit owners or others of the common elements or portions thereof on such terms as the Committee sees fit. Any funds received by the Committee for any such use shall become part of the maintenance fund.

12. Duties of Committee. The Committee shall acquire and make arrangements for, and pay for out of the maintenance fund, in addition to the manager, managing agent or other personnel above provided for, the following:

(a) Water, waste removal, electricity and telephone and other necessary utility service for the common elements and such services to the units (including but not limited to, heating) as are not separately metered or charged to the owners thereof;

(b) Insurance as provided for and required in the Declaration;

(c) Landscaping, gardening, snow removal, painting, cleaning, tuck-pointing, maintenance, decorating, repair and replacement of the common areas and facilities (but not including the interior surfaces, windows and doors of the units, and the patios and balconies which the unit owners have the exclusive rights to use and occupy as provided for hereinabove, which the respective unit owner shall paint, clean, decorate, maintain and repair) and

(d) Any other materials, supplies, furniture, labor, services maintenance, repairs, structural alterations, or assessments which the Committee deems necessary or proper for the maintenance and operation of the property as a condominium project or for the enforcement of any restrictions or provisions contained herein;

(e) Any amount necessary to discharge any mechanic's lien or other encumbrance levied against the property or any part thereof which may in the opinion of the Committee constitute a lien against the property or against the common areas and facilities, rather than merely against the interest therein of particular unit owners. Where one or more unit owners are responsible for the existence of such lien, they shall be jointly and severally liable for the cost of discharging it and any costs incurred by the Committee by reason of said lien or liens shall be specially assessed to said unit owners and shall, until paid by such unit owners, constitute a lien on the interest of such unit owners in the property, which lien may be perfected and foreclosed in the manner provided in Section 57-8-20 of the Utah Condominium Ownership Act with respect to liens for failure to pay a share of the common expenses;

(f) Maintenance and repair of any unit or any other portion of the property which a unit owner is obligated to maintain or repair under the Committee terms hereof, if such maintenance or repair is necessary, in the discretion of the Committee, and the owner or owners of said unit have failed or refused to perform the necessary maintenance or repair within a reasonable time after written notice of the necessity of said maintenance or repair delivered by the Committee to said unit owner or owners; provided that the Committee shall levy a special assessment against such unit for the cost of said maintenance or repair and the amount of such special assessment shall constitute a lien on the interest of such unit owner or owners' in the property, which lien may be perfected and foreclosed in the manner provided in Section 57-8-20 of the Utah Condominium Ownership Act with respect to liens for failure to pay a share of the common expenses.

13. Annual and Special Meetings of Unit Owners. The first annual meeting of the unit owners shall be called by the Developer, upon ten (10) days notice, not later than March 1st 1977. Thereafter, an annual meeting of the unit owners shall be held on the first Wednesday in March in each year for the purpose of electing members of the Committee and such other business as may come before the members of the Committee and such other business as may come before the meeting. Special meetings of the unit owners may be called for any reasonable purpose, either by the President, or by not less than 33 1/3 percent of the unit owners, the notice for which shall specify the matters to be considered at such special meeting.

14. Special Provisions regarding Annual Meeting of Unit Owners. All meetings of the unit owners shall take place at 7 o'clock p.m. in the recreation building, or at such other reasonable place or time designated by the Committee. Written notice of the holding of any regular or special meeting of the unit owners, stating the date, hour and place of such meeting shall be delivered or sent, in person or by mail, to each unit owner in care of his unit at least five (5) days before the date of such meeting. A majority of the unit owners shall constitute a quorum at all such meetings. A unit owner may vote either in person or by proxy at any regular or special meeting of the unit owners. Every proxy must be in writing and no proxy shall be valid after (12) twelve months from the date of its execution.

15. Committee Officers. A president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary and a treasurer shall be elected at each annual meeting of the Committee from among its members. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person, except the offices of president and secretary. Any such officer may be removed by the vote of the majority of the Committee at any time. A vacancy in any office may be filled by the Committee for the unexpired term.

16. Committee President: Duties and Powers. The president shall preside over the meetings of the Committee and the unit owners; he may sign, together with any other officer designated by the Committee, any contracts, checks, drafts, or other instruments designated or approved by the Committee. In the absence of the president, or in the event of his inability to act, the vice-presidents (in order elected) shall perform the duties of the president.

17. Committee Secretary: Duties and Powers. The secretary shall, in addition to the duties provided by law, see that all notices (except the notice for the first annual meeting of the unit owners) are duly given as herein provided.

18. Maintenance, Repair, Improvement of Common Areas. All expenses, charges and costs of the maintenance, repair or replacement of the common areas and facilities and any other expenses, charges or costs which the Committee may incur or expend pursuant hereto, shall be approved by the Committee and a written memorandum thereof prepared and signed by the treasurer. There shall be no structural alterations, capital additions to, or capital improvements on the common areas and facilities; (other than for purposes of replacing or restoring portions of the common areas and facilities requiring an expenditure in excess of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) without the prior approval of 66 2/3 percent of the unit owners.

19. Annual Budget. Each year on or before November 1, the Committee shall estimate the annual budget of common expenses (the "annual budget") including the total amount required for the cost of wages, materials, insurance, services and supplies which will be required during the ensuing calendar year for the rendering of all services, together with a reasonable amount considered by the Committee to be necessary for a reserve for contingencies and replacements, and shall on or before December 1 notify each unit owner in writing as to the amount of such estimate with reasonable itemization thereof. Said annual budget shall be assessed to the unit owners according to each unit owner's percentage of ownership in the common elements. On or before January 31, of the ensuing year, and the last day of each and every month of said year, each unit owner shall be obligated to pay to the Committee, and as it may direct, 1/12th of the assessment made pursuant to this paragraph. On or before the 31st day of January of each calendar year commencing January 31, 1978, the Committee shall supply to all unit owners an itemized accounting of the maintenance expenses for the preceding calendar year actually incurred and paid together with a tabulation of the amounts collected pursuant to the estimates provided, and showing the net amount over or short of the actual expenditures plus reserves. Any amount accumulated in excess of the amount required for actual expenses and reserves shall be credited according to each owner's percentage of ownership in the common areas and facilities to the installments due in the succeeding six months after rendering of the accounting. The Committee shall build up and maintain a reasonable reserve for contingencies and replacements. Extraordinary expenditures not originally included in the annual budget which may become necessary during the year, shall be charged first against such reserve. If said annual budget proves inadequate for any reason including nonpayment of any owner's assessment, the Committee may at any time levy a further assessment, which shall be assessed to the unit owners according to each unit owners percentage of ownership in the common areas and facilities. The Committee shall serve notice of such further assessment on all the unit owners by a statement in writing giving the amount and reasons therefore, and such is due within ten (10) days after the delivery or mailing of such notice of further assessment. All unit owners shall be obligated to pay the adjusted monthly amount.

Assessments shall be levied against the unit owners during said period as provided in this paragraph.

The failure or delay of the Committee to prepare or serve the annual or adjusted budget on the unit owners shall not constitute a waiver or release in any manner of the unit owner's obligation to pay the maintenance and other costs and necessary reserves, as herein provided, whenever the same shall be determined, and in the absence of any annual budget or adjusted budget, the unit owners shall continue to pay the monthly assessment charges at the then existing monthly rate established for the previous period until the monthly assessment payment which is due within ten (10) days after such new annual or adjusted budget shall have been mailed or delivered.

21. Fidelity Bonds. The Committee may require that all officers and employees of the Committee handling or responsible for funds shall require adequate fidelity bonds. The premium on such fidelity bonds shall be paid by the Committee.

22. Declarant's Powers. In addition to those powers otherwise bestowed upon the declarant by law or by this Declaration or the by-laws, until such time as the first Committee provided for herein is elected, the Declarant may assess each unit owner a maintenance fee. All of the rights, duties and functions of the Committee set forth in the Declaration shall be exercised by the Declarant for a period ending thirty (30) days after the date on which the first annual meeting of the unit owners is called pursuant to the terms of Paragraph 13 hereinabove. Declarant shall also have the power to appoint and remove some or all of the members of the Committee or some or all of the officers of the unit ownership association, if any, during the thirty (30) day period referred to in the preceding sentence, in accordance with Section 57-8-16.5 of the Act.

23. Default. If a unit owner is in default in the monthly payment of the aforesaid charges or assessments for thirty (30) days, the Committee may assess a service charge of .5% of the balance of the aforesaid charges and assessments in default for thirty (30) days for each month, or part hereof, that said balance or any part thereof, remains unpaid. In addition to any remedies or liens provided by law, including the right to possession of the unit of a unit owner in default as aforesaid under the provisions of the Forceable Entry and Detainer Act, if a unit owner is in default in the monthly payment of the aforesaid charges or assessments for thirty (30) days, the Committee may bring suit for and on behalf of itself and as representative of all unit owner, to enforce collection thereof or to foreclose the lien therefore as provided by law; and there shall be added to the amount due the costs of said suit, together with legal interest and reasonable attorney fees to be fixed by the Court. No owner may waive or otherwise escape liability for the assessments provided for herein by non-user of the common elements or abandonment of his or her unit.

24. Statement of Account. Upon ten (10) days notice to the Committee, and the payment of a reasonable fee fixed by the Committee not to exceed Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) any unit owner shall be furnished a statement of his account setting forth the amount of any unpaid assessments or other charges due and owing from such owner.

25. Mortgage Protection. Any first mortgage or first trust deed made, owned or held by a bank, savings and loan association or insurance company, and recorded prior to the recording or mailing of a notice by the Committee of the amount owing by a unit owner who has refused or failed to pay his share of the monthly assessment when due shall be superior to the lien of such unpaid common expenses set forth in said notice and to all assessments for common expenses which become due and are unpaid subsequent to the date of recording of such first mortgage or first trust deed.

26. Rules and Regulations. The Committee may, from time to time, adopt or amend such rules and regulations governing the operation, maintenance, beautification and use of the common elements and the units, not inconsistent with the terms of the Declaration and these By-Laws as it sees fit, and the unit owners shall conform to and abide by such rules and regulations. Written notice of such rules and regulations shall be given to all unit owners and occupants. A violation of such rules or regulations shall be deemed a violation of the terms of the Declaration.

27. Amendment. Except as otherwise provided herein, the provisions of these By-Laws may be amended, changed or modified by an instrument in writing setting forth such amendment, change or modification, signed and acknowledged by all members of the Committee, and by record unit owners holding at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the total vote hereunder, which amendment shall be effective upon recordation in the office of the recorder of Utah County, State of Utah.
