2.2. Location of Meetings

The Association shall hold meetings at suitable place convenient to the Members as the Board of Directors may designate.

2.2. Annual Meetings.

The Board of Directors shall set the date and time of regular annual meetings so as to occur during the first or fourth quarters of the calendar year. At the Board's discretion, annual meetings, in whole or in part, may be conducted electronically, via the Internet or teleconference, if, and to the extent permitted by Utah law.

2.4. Special Meetings.

Special meetings of the Association may be called at any time by the President, by resolution of the Board of Directors, or upon written petition of Members, entitled to vote, representing at least 25% of the Association's membership. Members' written petition describing the purpose of the meeting shall be delivered to the Association's Secretary. Special meetings may be conducted electronically, via the Internet or teleconference, if, and to the extent permitted by Utah law.

If the Association's Secretary does not send notice of a special meeting pursuant to Section 2.5 within 30-days following the date the written petition is delivered to the Association's Secretary, any Member signing the petition may set the time and place of the special meeting and give the Association notice pursuant to Section 2.5.

2.5. Notice of Meetings.

At least 30 but not more than 60-days before the date of a meeting, the Association's Secretary shall cause notice stating the place, day, and hour of any meeting. Waiver of notice of an Association meeting shall be the equivalent of proper notice. Any Member may waive, in writing, notice of any Association meeting, either before or after such meeting. Any Member's attendance at a meeting shall be deemed a waiver by such Member unless the Member specifically objects to lack of proper notice at the time the meeting is called to order. Attendance at a special meeting also shall be deemed waiver of notice of all business transacted at the meeting unless an objection on the basis of lack of proper notice is raised before the business is put to a vote.

2.7. Membership and Voting.

The Association has one class of membership. Members are all Owners and have one equal vote for each Lot they own, except that there shall be only one vote per Lot.

For each Lot, the Owner shall be entitled personally to exercise the vote for their Lot. In any situation where a Member is entitled personally to exercise the vote for his or her Lot, and there is more than one Owner of such Lot, the vote for such Lot shall be exercised as the co-Owners determine among themselves and advise the Secretary of the Association in writing prior to the vote being taken. Absent such advice, the Lot's vote shall be suspended if more than one person seeks to exercise it.

Voting rights shall be automatically suspended if a Lot Owner is 90-days delinquent in paying any assessment or other charge owed to the Association.

Members may vote by US mail, facsimile, electronic mail and on the Association's website before a meeting without the necessity of attending the meeting or by voice vote or ballot at a meeting. Votes cast at a meeting for the election of directors shall be by secret ballot.

If the Association cannot take action at a meeting because a quorum is not represented, the Members representing a majority of those who are present may adjourn the meeting and reconvene at a time and date at least 10 but not more than 30-days from the date called for the original meeting. In accordance with Utah Code Title 16, Chapter 6a, Section 704, no further notice need be given as to time, date and place set for the reconvened meeting. At the reconvened meeting, if a quorum is represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called. 3.9. Telephonic Participation.

Subject to the availability of appropriate equipment, Board members or members of any committee designated by the Board may participate in a meeting by means of telephone or other electronic media through which the participants can hear each other. Participation in this manner shall constitute presence at the meeting.

3.10. Quorum of the Board.

At all Board meetings, a majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the votes of a majority of the directors present at a meeting which a quorum is present shall constitute the Board's decision, unless these Revised By-Laws or the Amended Declaration specifically provide otherwise.

3.11. Conduct of Meetings.

The Secretary shall keep a minute book of Board proceedings, recording all Board resolutions, all transactions and all official proceedings occurring at such meetings. All regular and special Board meetings shall be open to any and all Members of the Association.

Members may request additions to the agenda, provided such request is submitted in writing and received by the Secretary of the Association at least 72-hours before the meeting.

Attendees other than directors may participate in any discussion or deliberation. The President may limit the time any such individual may speak.

3.13. Action Taken Without a Formal Meeting.

Any action authorized by Utah law or the Governing Documents to be taken or which may be taken at a Board meeting may be taken without such a meeting if all directors sign a written consent, setting forth the action so taken. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote.

No rights or services shall be suspended until after the Board conducts the hearing and makes a final decision.

The above enforcement actions shall be in addition to any remedies available at law or in equity. The prevailing party in any such action shall be entitled to recover all costs incurred in the action, including without limitation, court fees and reasonable attorney fees.

The decision to pursue enforcement action in any particular case shall be left to the Board's discretion, except the Board shall not be arbitrary, capricious or against public policy in taking enforcement action. The Board may determine that under the circumstances of a particular case:

- (iii). Although a violation may exist or may have occurred, it is not of such a material nature as to be objectionable to a reasonable person or to justify expending the Association's resources; or
- (iv). That it is not in the Association's best interests, based upon hardship, expense or other reasonable criteria, to pursue enforcement action.

At any given time, a decision not to take an enforcement action on a particular provision of the Governing Documents shall not prevent the Association from enforcing the same provision at a later time or prevent the enforcement of any other provision of the Governing Documents.

“Excess Benefit”: A person gains an excess benefit when a transaction or arrangement entered into by the Association results in a tangible or intangible benefit that is not readily available to or enjoyed by all Members of the Association.

For the purpose of this Conflict of Interest Policy, compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not substantial.

A financial interest or excess benefit is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under Article III, Section 2, a person who has a financial interest or may gain excess benefit may have a conflict of interest only if the board or committee decides that a conflict of interest exists.

6.3. Duty to Disclose

In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person shall disclose the existence of a financial interest or potential excess benefit. An interested person shall be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Board of Directors and members of committees with Board delegated authority considering the transaction or arrangement.

6.4. Determining If a Conflict of Interest Exists

After disclosure of the financial interest or potential excess benefit and all material facts, the interested person shall be excused from the Board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon by the remaining Board or committee members.

6.5. Addressing the Conflict of Interest

- a. An interested person may make a presentation at the Board or committee meeting, but after the presentation the interested person shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.
- b. The chairperson of the Board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.
- c. After exercising due diligence, the Board or committee shall determine whether the Association can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.
- d. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the Board or committee shall determine by majority vote of disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Association’s best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

6.6. Policy Violations

a. If the Board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

b. If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the Board or committee determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate corrective action, up to and including, removing the member from the Board or committee.

6.7. Records of Proceedings.

The minutes of Board or committee meetings with Board delegated authority shall contain:

a. The names of persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest or potential excess gain in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the financial interest or excess personal gain, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the Board's or committee's decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed.

b. The names of persons present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

6.8. Annual Statements.

Each director, officer and member of a committee with Board delegated authority shall annually sign a statement which affirms such person has (i) received a copy of the Association's Conflict of Interest Policy; (ii) read and understands the policy; and (iii) agrees to comply with the policy.

The Board shall provide for such inspection to occur within 10-days of a written request, at such place as it shall designate. The cost of Amendments to these Revised By-Laws shall become effective upon recordation unless a later effective date is specified therein.
