-vs- ) DECREE OF DIVORCE BLAINE LEAVITT, )
Defendant. ) Civil No. 131611

The above entitled matter coming on for hearing on the 17th day of October, 1961, before the Honorable A. H. Ellett, one of the Judges of the above entitled court, sitting without a jury, and plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Robert D. Crofts, and no one appearing for defendant, and it appearing to the court that more than 90 days have elapsed from the filing of the complaint herein, and it appearing to the court that plaintiff has heretofore filed in this action a motion for an order of publication, that an order for publication of summons has been duly signed and filed herein, and that pursuant thereto, defendant has been duly and properly served with summons by publications, in accordance with law, and it appearing to the court that the defendant has failed to answer or otherwise plead to said complaint herein within the time allowed by law, or at all, and defendant's default having been duly entered upon motion of plaintiff, and plaintiff having introduced testimony and legal evidence in support of the allegations contained in her said complaint, and the court having heard the testimony and legal evidence introduced by the plaintiff, and the court being fully advised in the premises, and the matter being closed, and the court having heretofore made and entered, and signed and filed its FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, now therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

1. That the plaintiff is hereby awarded a divorce from the defendant, and the bonds of matrimony and contract of marriage between plaintiff and defendant are hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are each released from any and all obligations thereunder, provided, however, that the decree of divorce shall not become absolute until the expiration of three months from the date of entry of this said decree of divorce in the above entitled action, unless an appeal or other proceedings for review are pending, or the court upon its own motion or upon the application of any person, whether interested or not, otherwise orders.

2. That the plaintiff is hereby awarded the full care, custody, and control of the aforesaid children of the parties.

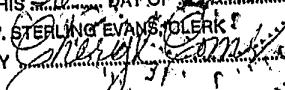

3. That the plaintiff is hereby awarded the household furniture and furnishings, together with the home located at 4330 West 5780 South, Kearns, Utah, more particularly described as follows: Lot #167, Block 83, Hoffman Heights #13, located in the Southwest 1/4 of the Northeast 1/4 Section 18, Township 2 South, Range 1 West, Salt Lake Base and Meridian.

4. That the above entitled court should retain jurisdiction of the above entitled action with regard to alimony, child support money, attorney's fees, payment of family indebtedness, and court costs until the further order of this court, after personal jurisdiction of the defendant is obtained in the State of Utah.

Dated this 30 day of October, 1961.
