The property located at 839 East South Temple, Salt Lake City, Utah, and more particularly described in Appendix "A", hereinafter called the "condominium", has been submitted to the provisions of the Utah Condominium Ownership Act, by the Declaration recorded in the Office of the County Recorder, Salt Lake County, State of Utah, simultaneously herewith.

Section 2. Applicability of By-Laws. The provisions of these By-Laws are applicable to the condominium and to the use and occupancy thereof. The term "condominium property", as used herein, shall include the land, the buildings and all other improvements thereon, all easements, rights and appurtenances belonging thereto, and all other property, personal or mixed, intended for use in connection therewith, all of which are intended to be submitted to the provisions of the Utah Condominium Ownership Act.

Section 3. Application. All present and future owners, mortgagees, lessees and occupants of the apartment units and their employees and any other persons who may use the facilities of the condominium in any manner are subject to these By-Laws, the Declaration, and rules and regulations pertaining to the use and operation of the condominium property. The acceptance of a deed or conveyance or the entering into of a lease or the act of occupancy of an apartment unit shall constitute an acceptance of the provisions of these instruments and an agreement to comply therewith.

Section 4. Offices. The office of the condominium and of the Board of Directors shall be located at 839 East South Temple, Salt Lake City, Utah.

ARTICLE II

Board of Directors

Section 1. Number and Qualification. The affairs of the condominium shall be governed by the Board of Directors of the Maryland Condominium Unit Owner's Association, a non-profit, Utah corporation. Until three years have elapsed from the time the Declaration and By-Laws have been recorded or at such earlier time as the Declarant, in its sole discretion, may determine, and thereafter until their successors shall have been elected by the unit owners, the Declarant shall have the right to select the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors, during the course of construction, shall consist of such persons or agents of the Declarant as shall have been designated by the Declarant. Thereafter, the Board of Directors shall be composed of five (5) persons, all of whom shall be the owners, spouses of owners or mortgagees of condominium units; or, in the case of partnership owners or mortgagees, members or employees of such partnership, or in the case of corporate owners or mortgagees, officers, shareholders or employees of such corporation; or in the case of fiduciary owners or mortgagees, fiduciaries or officers or employees of such fiduciaries.

Section 2. Powers and Duties. The Board of Directors shall have the powers and duties necessary for the administration of the affairs of the condominium, except as such powers and duties as by law or by the Declaration or by these By-Laws may not be delegated to the Board of Directors by the unit owners. The powers and duties to be exercised by the Board of Directors shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

- (a) Operation, care, upkeep and maintenance of the common elements;
- (b) Determination of the amounts required for operation, maintenance and other affairs of the condominium;
- (c) Collection of the common charges from the unit owners;
- (d) Employment and dismissal of personnel as necessary for the efficient maintenance and operation of the condominium;
- (e) Adoption and amendment of rules and regulations covering the details of the operation and use of the condominium and designating the signatures required therefor;
- (f) Obtaining insurance for the condominium property including the apartment units, pursuant to the provisions contained in the Declaration; and,
- (g) Making repairs, additions and improvements to, or alterations of the condominium property, and repairs to and reconstruction of the property in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration after damage or destruction by fire or other casualty or as a result of condemnation or eminent domain proceedings.
- (h) Enforcing the terms of the Declaration, By-Laws, or Rules and Regulations through injunction, suit, foreclosure, abatement or any other lawful means.

Section 3. Managing Agent and Manager. The Board of Directors may employ for the condominium a managing agent or manager at a compensation established by the Board, to perform such duties and services as the Board of Directors shall authorize, including, but not limited to, the duties listed in subdivisions (a), (c), and (d) of Section 2 of this Article II. The Board of Directors may delegate to the manager or managing agent, all of the powers granted to the Board of Directors by these By-Laws other than the powers set forth in subdivisions (b), (e), (f), (g) and (h) of Section 2 of this Article II.

Section 4. Election and Term of Office. At the first annual meeting of the unit owners, the term of office of all members of the Board of Directors shall be fixed at one (1) year. At the expiration of the initial term of office of the initial Board of Directors, their successors shall be elected to serve for a term of one (1) year. The members of the Board of Directors shall hold office until their respective successors shall have been elected by the unit owners.

Section 5. Removal of Members of Board of Directors. At any regular or special meeting of unit owners, after the unit owners have assumed the management responsibility, any one or more of the members of the Board of Directors may be removed with or without cause by a majority of the unit owners and a successor may then and there or thereafter be elected to fill the vacancy thus created. Any member of the Board of Directors whose removal has been proposed by the unit owners shall be given an opportunity to be heard at the meeting.

Section 6. Vacancies. Vacancies in the Board of Directors caused by any reason other than the removal of a member thereof by a vote of the unit owners, shall be filled by a vote of a majority of the remaining members at a special meeting of the Board of Directors held for that purpose promptly after the occurrence of any such vacancy, even though the members present at such meeting may constitute less than a quorum, and each person so elected shall be a member of the Board of Directors for the remainder of the term of the member so removed and until a successor shall be elected at the next annual meeting of the unit owners.

Section 7. Organization of Meeting. The first meeting of the members of the Board of Directors following the annual meeting of the unit owners shall be held within ten (10) days thereafter, at such time and place as shall be fixed by the unit owners at the meeting at which such Board of Directors shall have been elected, and no notice shall be necessary to the newly elected members of the Board of Directors in order legally to constitute such meeting, providing a majority of the whole Board of Directors shall be present thereat.

Section 8. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at such time and place as shall be determined from time to time by a majority of the members of the Board of Directors, but at least two such meetings shall be held during each fiscal year. Notice of regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be given to each member of the Board of Directors, by mail or telephone at least three business days prior to the day named for such meeting.

Section 9. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the president on three business days' notice to each member of the Board of Directors, given by mail or telephone, which notice shall state the time, place and purpose of the meeting. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be called by the president or secretary in like manner and on like notice on the written request of at least three members of the Board of Directors.

Section 10. Waiver of Notice. Any member of the Board of Directors may, at any time, waive notice of any meeting of the Board of Directors, in writing, and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance by a member of the Board of Directors at any meeting of the Board of Directors shall constitute a waiver of notice by him of the time and place thereof. If all the members of the Board of Directors are present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, no notice shall be required and any business may be transacted at such meeting.

Section 11. Quorum of Board of Directors. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the members thereof shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the vote of a majority of the members of the Board of Directors. If, at any meeting of the Board of Directors, there shall be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time. At any such adjournment at which a quorum is present, any business which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called, may be transacted without further notice.

Section 12. Fidelity Bonds. The Board of Directors shall obtain adequate fidelity bonds for all officers and employees of the condominium handling or responsible for condominium funds. The premiums on such bonds shall constitute a common expense.

Section 13. Compensation. No member of the Board of Directors shall receive any compensation from the condominium for acting as such.

Section 14. Liability of the Board of Directors. The members of the Board of Directors including Declarant shall not be liable to the unit owners for any mistake of judgment, negligence or otherwise except for their own willfull misconduct or bad faith. The unit owners shall indemnify and hold harmless each member of the Board of Directors, including Declarant, against all contractual liability to others arising out of contracts made by the Board of Directors on behalf of the association of unit owners. It is intended that the liability of any unit owner arising out of any contract made by the Board of Directors or out of the indemnity in favor of the members of the Board of Directors shall be limited to such proportion of the total liability thereunder as his interest in the common elements. Every agreement made by the Board of Directors or by the managing agent or manager on behalf of the association of the condominium shall provide that the members of the Board of Directors, the managing agent, or the manager, as the case may be, are acting only as agents for the unit owners and shall have no personal liability thereunder (except as unit owners), and that each unit owner's liability thereunder shall be limited to such proportion of the total liability thereunder as his interest in the common elements bears to the interest of all unit owners in the common elements.

Section 15. Right of Entry. The Board of Directors or its duly authorized agents shall have the right to enter any or all units in the case of an emergency originating in or threatening such unit or any part of the project, whether or not the unit owner or occupant thereof is present at the time. The Board of Directors or its duly authorized agent shall also have the right to enter into any and all of said units at all reasonable times as required for the purpose of performing emergency installations, alterations or repairs to the mechanical, electrical or other utility devices or installations located therein or thereon; provided, however, that such emergency installation, alteration or repair is necessary to prevent damage or threatened damage to such unit or units in the project; and provided further, that the unit owner affected by such entry shall first be notified thereof if available and if time and circumstances shall permit.

Section 16. Administrative Rules and Regulations. The Board of Directors shall have the power to adopt, establish and amend by resolution, such building management and operational rules as it may deem necessary for the maintenance, operation, management and control of the project and the Board of Directors may from time to time by resolution, alter, amend and repeal such rules. When a copy of any amendment or alteration or provision for repeal of any rule or rules has been furnished to the unit owners, such amendment, alteration or repeal shall be deemed to be a part of such rules. Unit owners shall at all times obey such rules and see that they are faithfully observed by those persons over whom they have or may exercise control and supervision it being understood that such rules shall apply to and be binding upon all unit owners and/or occupants or guests of any unit.

Section 17. Obligation to Comply With Rules. Each unit

owner, tenant or occupant of a unit shall comply with the provisions of the Act, Declaration, By-Laws, the rules and regulations and all agreements and determinations lawfully made and/or entered into by the Board of Directors or unit owners, when acting within the scope of their authority and any failure to comply with any of the provisions thereof shall be grounds for an action by the Board of Directors for injunctive relief and/or to recover for any loss or damage resulting therefrom.

Any such determination by the Board of Directors within the bounds of the Act, By-Laws or this Declaration shall be final and conclusive on the unit owners, and any expenditure made by the Board of Directors within the Bounds of the Act, By-Laws or Declaration shall be deemed necessary and proper for such purposes against the unit owners.

Section 2. Insurance. The Board of Directors shall be responsible for obtaining and maintaining at all times insurance as set forth within the By-Laws, including insurance against fire with endorsements for extended coverage for full insurable replacement value. Such insurance shall run for the benefit of the Board of Directors, the respective unit owners and the respective mortgagees as their interests may appear. Said insurance shall be governed by the following provisions:

(a) The Board of Directors shall be required to maintain a single master policy covering physical damage to the entire property under which insurance company will issue to each unit owner a certificate or sub-policy specifying the portion of the master policy allocated to each owner's unit and undivided interest in the general common elements. The master policy should also provide:

(1) that each unit owner shall have the right to request an increase in coverage allocated to his unit by reason of improvement made solely to his unit, but any additional premium resulting from such additional coverage shall be billed by the insurance company directly to and shall be paid by such unit owner; and,

(2) each unit owner may obtain at his own expense additional coverage insuring him for the cost of emergency shelter resulting from damage rendering his unit uninhabitable.

(b) In addition, the Board of Directors shall be required to secure a master policy covering physical damage that will provide the following:

(1) That the insurer waive its rights of subrogation to any claims against the Declarant, the Board of Directors, the unit owners and their respective agents, employees and guests, and in the case of the unit owners, members of their household.

(2) That the master policy on the property cannot be cancelled, invalidated or suspended on account of conduct of any member of the Committee or the Board or officer or employee of the Board or Committee or managing agent without a prior demand in writing that the Board of Directors, or managing agent cure the defect.

(3) That no other insurance clause contained in the master policy shall expressly exclude an individual unit owner's policy from operation.

(4) That until the expiration of 30 days after the insurer gives notice in writing to the mortgagee of any unit, the mortgage insurance coverage will not be affected, jeopardized by any act or conduct of the unit owner, the other unit owners, Board of Directors or any of their agents, employees or household members nor cancelled for non-payment of premiums.

(5) That the master policy may not be cancelled or substantially modified without at least 30 days prior written notice to the Board of Directors.

(6) That the net proceeds of such policy, if less than $25,000.00, shall be payable to the Board of Directors; and, if more than $25,000.00, shall be payable to an insurance trustee.

(7) The master policy shall contain a standard mortgage clause in favor of the mortgagee of the unit to the extent of the portion of the coverage of the master policy allocated to such unit and to which, provided that the loss, if any, thereunder shall be payable to such mortgagee and the unit owner as their interests may appear; subject, however, to a lost payment and adjustment provision in favor of the Board of Directors and the insurance trustee.

(c) All policies of insurance should be written with a company licensed to do business in the State of Utah and holding a rating of AAA or better by Best Insurance Reports.

(d) In no event shall the coverage obtained and maintained by the Board of Directors hereunder be brought into contradiction with insurance purchased by individual owners or their mortgagees.

(e) Each unit owner shall be required to notify the Board of Directors of all improvements made by the unit owners to their units, the value of which is in excess of $1,000.00.

(f) Any unit owner who obtains any individual policy which covers any portion of the property other than the personal property belonging to such unit owner shall be required to file a copy of such individual policy or policies with the Board of Directors within 30 days after purchase of the insurance. Such unit owner shall also promptly notify in writing the Board of Directors in the event such policy is cancelled.

(g) The Board of Directors shall review all types of coverage and limits of coverage at least annually, but in no event shall have less than $1 million with respect to any one accident or occurrence and $50,000.00 with respect to any claim for property damage. It shall also be the responsibility of each unit owner to obtain at his own expense liability insurance with respect to his ownership or use of his unit and the Board of Directors shall not be responsible for obtaining such insurance.

(h) A duplicate original of the master policy physical damage insurance or renewals thereof or subpolicies or certifications issued thereunder together with proof of payment of premium shall be delivered to all mortgagees of units at least 30 days prior to the expiration of the then current policies.

(i) The lender that is the holder of 51% of mortgages or deeds of trust encumbering units shall be designated as insurance trustee. If for any reason such lender shall refuse or shall cease to act as such, or at such time shall have the right to designate any bank, trust company, management agent, savings and loan association, building loan association, insurance company or any institutional lender or the condominium association as the insurance trustee and all parties beneficially interested in such insurance coverage shall be bound thereby. The insurance trustee at the time of deposit of such policy endorsement shall acknowledge the policy, and any proceeds thereof shall be held in accordance with the terms of these By-Laws. The insurance trustee shall not be liable for payment of premiums, the renewal of the policy, sufficiency of coverage, the form or content of the policy, the correctness of any amount received by it upon account of proceeds of any insurance policy nor for the failure to collect any insurance proceeds. The sole duty of the insurance trustee shall be to receive such proceeds as are paid to it and to hold the same in trust for the benefit of the unit owners of the condominiums and their respective mortgagees.

Section 3. Repair or Reconstruction After Damage. In the event of damage to or destruction of any building as a result of fire or other casualty (unless 75% or more of the building is destroyed or substantially damaged and 75% or more of the unit owners do not duly and promptly resolve to proceed with repair or restoration), the Board of Directors shall arrange for the prompt repair and reconstruction of the buildings (including any damaged condominium units, and any kitchen or bathroom fixture initially installed therein by the Declarant, but not including any wall, ceiling or floor decorations or coverings or other furniture, furnishings, fixtures or equipment installed by unit owners in the condominium units), and the Board of Directors shall disburse the proceeds of all insurance policies to the contractors engaged in such repair and restoration in appropriate progress payments. Any cost of such repair and restoration in excess of the insurance payments shall constitute a common expense and the Board of Directors may assess all the unit owners for such deficit as part of the common charges.

If 75% or more of the building is destroyed or substantially damaged and 75% or more of the unit owners do not duly and promptly resolve to proceed with repair or reconstruction, the condominium property shall be subject to an action for partition at the suit of any unit owner lienor, as if owned in common, in which event the net proceeds of sale, together with the net proceeds of insurance policies (or if there shall have been a repair or restoration pursuant to the first paragraph of this Section 3, and the amount of insurance proceeds shall have exceeded the cost of such repair or restoration) then the excess of such insurance proceeds shall be divided by the Board of Directors among all the unit owners in proportion to their respective common interests, after first paying out of the share of each unit owner the amount of any unpaid liens on his condominium unit, in the order or priority of such liens.

Section 4. Payment of Common Charges. All unit owners shall be obligated to pay the common charges assessed by the Board of Directors pursuant to the provisions of Section 1 of Article V at such time or times as the Board of Directors shall determine.

No unit owner shall be liable for the payment of any part of the common charges assessed against his condominium unit subsequent to a sale, transfer or other conveyance by him thereof (made in accordance with the provisions of Section 1 of Article VII of these By-Laws). A purchaser of a condominium unit shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of common charges assessed against such condominium unit subsequent to the acquisition by him of such condominium. A mortgagee or other purchaser of a condominium unit at a foreclosure sale of such condominium unit shall not be subject to a lien for the payment of common charges assessed prior to the foreclosure sale.

Section 5. Collection of Assessments. The Board of Directors shall assess common charges against the unit owners from time to time and at least annually and shall take prompt action to collect from a unit owner any common charge due which remains unpaid by him for more than 5 days from the due date for its payment.

Section 6. Default in Payment of Common Charges.

(a) If any unit owner shall fail or refuse to make any payment of the common expenses when due, the amount thereof shall constitute a lien on the interest of the owner of the property and upon the recording of notice thereof by the Board of Directors shall be a lien upon the unit owner's interest in the property prior to all other liens and encumbrances, recorded and unrecorded, except only:

- (1) tax and special assessment liens; and,
- (2) prior recorded encumbrances which are superior as a matter of law.

(b) In the event of default by any unit owner in paying to the Board of Directors the assessed common charges, such unit owner shall be obligated to pay a ten dollar ($10) late charge on all fees not paid within five (5) days and in the event that such default is not cured within ten (10) days a late charge of twenty dollars ($20) shall be charged from the date due thereof, together with all expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by the Board of Directors in any proceeding brought to collect such unpaid common charges. The Board of Directors shall have the right and duty to attempt to recover such common charges, together with interest thereon, and the expenses of the proceedings, including attorney's fees, in an action at law brought against such unit owner, or by foreclosure of the lien on such condominium unit.

(c) Upon payment of a delinquent assessment the Board of Directors shall cause a satisfaction of lien to be filed in cases where a notice of lien has been filed.

(d) If a unit owner shall at any time let or sublet the unit and shall be in default for a period of one month in the payment of any assessments, the Board of Directors may bring suit directly against such unit owner for the amount in default and such unit owner shall remain obligated for any such assessment regardless of any contract or instrument between the tenant and unit owner. No such contract attempting to relieve the unit owner of any liability shall be of any force or validity as against the Board of Directors.

Section 7. Foreclosure of Liens for Unpaid Common Charges.

In any action brought by the Board of Directors to foreclose a lien on a condominium unit because of unpaid common charges, the unit owner shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the use of his condominium unit and the plaintiff in such foreclosure action shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect such rental. A suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid common charges shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing the same.

Section 8. Statement of Common Charges. The Board of Directors shall promptly provide any unit owner who makes a request in writing with a written statement of his common charges.

Section 9. Abatement and Enjoining of Violations. The violation of any rule or regulation adopted by the Board of Directors, or the breach of any By-Law contained herein, or the breach of any provision of the Declaration, shall give the Board of Directors the right, in addition to any other rights available at law or set forth in these By-Laws,

(a) to enter the condominium unit in which, or as to which, such violation or breach exists and to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting unit owner, any structure, thing or condition that may exist therein contrary to the intent and meaning of the provisions hereof, and the Board of Directors shall not thereby be deemed guilty in any manner of trespass; or,

(b) to enjoin, abate or remedy such thing or condition by appropriate legal proceedings.

Section 10. Maintenance and Repair.

(a) All maintenance of and repairs to any apartment unit, structural or non-structural, ordinary or extraordinary (other than maintenance of and repairs to any common elements contained therein not necessitated by the negligence, misuse or neglect of the owner of such condominium unit), shall be made by the owner of such condominium unit. Each unit shall be responsible for all damages to any other condominium unit and to the common elements resulting from his failure to effect such maintenance and repairs.

(b) All maintenance, repairs and replacements to the common elements, whether located inside or outside of the condominium units (unless necessitated by the negligence, misuse or neglect of a unit owner, in which case such expense shall be charged to the unit owner), shall be made by the Board of Directors and be charged to all the unit owners as a common expense.

Section 11. Terraces, Balconies and Patios. A terrace, balcony or patio to which a condominium unit has sole access, shall be for the exclusive use of the owner of such condominium unit. Such unit owner shall keep such balcony, terrace or patio free and clean of snow, ice and any accumulation of water, and shall make all repairs thereto resulting from his negligence, misuse or neglect. All other repairs in, to or with respect to such terrace, balcony or patio shall be made by the Board of Directors as a common expense.

Section 12. Use of Condominium Units. In order to provide for congenial occupancy of the condominium property and for the protection of the values of the condominium units, the use of the condominium property shall be subject to the following limitations:

(a) The condominium units shall be used for residences only, except as the Board of Directors may choose to purchase and use a unit as a management office.

(b) The common elements shall be used only for the furnishing of the services and facilities for which they are reasonably suited and which are incidental to the use and occupancy of the condominium units.

(c) No nuisances shall be allowed on the condominium property nor shall any use or practice be allowed which is a source of annoyance to its residents or which intereferes with the peaceful possession or proper use of the condominium property by its residents.

(d) No immoral, improper, offensive or unlawful use shall be made of the condominium property or any part thereof, and all valid laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of all governmental bodies having jurisdiction thereof shall be complied with. Such compliance shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the unit owners or the Board of Directors, whichever shall have the obligation to maintain or repair such portion of the condominium property.

(e) No portion of a condominium unit (other than the entire condominium unit) may be rented and no transient tenants may be accommodated therein.

Section 13. Additions, Alterations or Improvements by Unit Owners. No unit owner shall make any structural addition, alteration or improvement in or to his condominium unit without the prior written consent thereto of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall have the obligation to answer any written request by a unit owner for approval of a proposed structural addition, alteration or improvement in such unit owner's condominium unit within thirty (30) days and failure to answer within the stipulated time shall constitute a consent by the Board of Directors to the proposed addition alteration or improvement. Any application to any governmental authority for a permit to make an addition, alteration or improvement in or to any condominium unit shall be executed by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall not be liable to any contractor, subcontractor or materialman or to any person sustaining personal injury or property damage for any claim arising in connection with such addition, alteration or improvement. The provisions of this Section 13 shall not apply to condominium units owned by the Declarant until such time as such condominium units have been initially sold by the Declarant and paid for.

Section 14. Water Charges and Sewer Rents. Water shall be supplied to all of the condominium units and the common elements through one or more building meters and the Board of Directors shall pay, as a common expense, all charges for water consumed on the premises, together with all related sewer rents arising therefrom, promptly after the bills therefor are rendered. In the event of a proposed sale of a condominium by the unit owner thereof, the Board of Directors, on request of the selling unit owner, shall execute and deliver to the purchaser of such condominium unit or to the purchaser's title insurance company, a letter agreeing to pay all charges for water and sewer rents affecting the property as of the date of closing of title to such condominium promptly after such charges have been billed by the appropriate collector.

Section 15. Gas. Gas shall be supplied to the building through the building meter and the bills for the same shall be paid by the Board of Directors as a common expense. No gas service shall be supplied to each individual unit.

Section 16. Electricity. Electricity shall be supplied by the public utility company serving the area directly to each condominium through a separate meter and each unit owner shall be required to pay the bills for electricity consumed or used in his condominium unit. The electricity serving the common elements shall be separately metered and the Board of Directors shall pay all bills for electricity consumed in such portions of the common elements as a common expense.

Section 17. Taxes. Each unit and its percentage of undivided interest in common areas and facilities shall be deemed to be a parcel and shall be subject to separate assessment and taxation by each assessing unit and special district for all types of taxes authorized by law, including but not limited to advalorem liens and special assessments.

Section 2. No Severance of Ownership. No unit owner shall execute any deed, mortgage or other instrument conveying or mortgaging title to his condominium unit without including the appurtenant interests, it being the intention hereof to prevent any severance of such combined ownership. Any such deed, mortgage or other instrument purporting to affect one or more of such interests, without including all such interests shall be deemed and taken to include the interest or interests so omitted, even though the latter shall not be expressly mentioned or described therein. No part of the appurtenant interests of any condominium unit may be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of, except as part of a sale, transfer or other disposition of the condominium unit to which such interests are appurtenant or as part of a sale, transfer or other disposition of such part of the appurtenant interests of all condominium units.

In such event that 75% or more of the unit owners do not duly and promptly approve the repair and reconstruction of such common elements, the Board of Directors shall disburse the net proceeds of such award in the same manner as they are required to distribute insurance proceeds where there is no repair or reconstruction of the damage, as provided in Section 3. of Article V of these By-Laws.
