This Agreement made and entered into this 28th day of October 1912, by and between Alice Bartholomew Child, the first party, George C. Triplett and wife, the second parties, and Charles C. Alexander and wife, the third parties, witnesseth:

That, whereas, the said parties and the said second and third parties, own separate tracts of land, in what is known as Mill Creek Canyon along the Mill Creek Stream, in the County of Salt Lake and State of Utah, described in recorded deeds; and

Whereas, each and all of the parties hereto are desirous of having a wagon road, the same to be used jointly by all of them, for the benefit of their several tracts of land, said wagon road to commence at a point, on the Mill Creek County Road which is on the north bank of said canyon, and to extend in a direction and to a distance as hereinafter designated;

Now, Therefore, the premises fully considered, all of the said parties have agreed among each other, as follows:

1. The said first party, having already paid, as per agreement of all of said parties, unto the second parties, for a right of way over their land for said road, the sum of $50.00; agrees to construct a wagon road on said right of way, including a bridge across said stream, at her own cost and expense, the said road, when completed, to be used jointly, and perpetually, by all the parties hereto, their heirs and assigns, for the purpose of ingress and egress to and over their said lands respectively.

2. The said second parties, for and in consideration of the sum of $50.00, paid by the said first party as aforesaid, have granted and conveyed and hereby do grant and convey, unto the said first party, her heirs and assigns, for the purposes aforesaid, a perpetual right of way, one rod wide, for a wagon road, starting from a point on the said Mill Creek Canyon boundary road, about thirty-five feet east from the frame barn of the said second parties, and winding thence in a southeasterly direction along and down the said north bank of said canyon to the center of said Mill Creek Stream, where the said road, including a bridge across said stream, has been located and is now being constructed.

3. The said third parties, for and in consideration of the said first party furnishing the said right of way, for the purposes aforesaid, from the said second parties, and for the further consideration that the said first party, is to construct, at her own cost, the said wagon road on said right of way, for joint use, as aforesaid, have granted and conveyed and hereby do grant and convey, a perpetual right of way twenty (20) feet wide, to commence at the center of said Mill Creek Stream, in line with said right of way above granted by said second parties and to be an extension thereof, thence extending in a southeasterly direction to a point about 80 feet west from the west boundary line of the land belonging to the said first party, thence east to said west boundary line, thence south along and adjoining said boundary line, to a point at the foot of the south bank of said canyon.

4. It is mutually agreed between the parties hereto that the said wagon road shall be and remain a perpetual easement for the purposes of affording ingress and egress to, over, in and upon the several tracts of land owned by the said parties respectively, as aforesaid.

5. It is further expressly agreed that the stipulations, covenants and agreements herein contained shall extend to and be binding upon the heirs, administrators, executors, legal representatives, and assigns of each and all of the parties hereto.

In Witness Whereof, the several parties have here unto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.
