2. To pay before delinquent all lawful taxes and assessments upon the Property; to keep the Property free and clear of all other charges, liens, or encumbrances impairing the security of this Deed of Trust;

3. To keep all buildings now or hereafter erected on the Property continuously insured against loss by fire or other hazards in an amount not less than the total debt secured by this Deed of Trust. All policies shall

The amount collected under any insurance policy may be applied upon any indebtedness secured by this Deed of Trust in such order as the Beneficiary shall determine. Such application by the Beneficiary shall not cause discontinuance of any proceedings to foreclose this Deed of Trust. In the event of foreclosure, all rights of the Trustor(s) in insurance policies then in force shall pass to the purchaser at the foreclosure sale.

4. To deliver to, pay for and maintain with Beneficiary until the indebtedness secured hereby is paid in full, such evidence of title as Beneficiary may require, including abstracts of title or policies of title insurance and any extensions or renewals thereof or supplements thereto.

8. The Property shall not be sold (by conveyance, contract to sell or otherwise), assigned, transferred or encumbered without the Beneficiary's consent; upon breach of this provision, in addition to any other remedies provided in the Note or Loan Documents, Beneficiary may accelerate the Note and declare all sums due under the Note and this Deed of Trust immediately due and payable, unless prohibited by applicable law.

9. In the event any portion of the Property is taken or damaged in an eminent domain proceeding, the entire amount of the award or such portion as may be necessary to fully satisfy the obligation secured by this Deed of Trust shall be paid to Beneficiary to be applied to said obligation.

10. By accepting payment of any sum secured by this Deed of Trust after its due date, Beneficiary does not waive its right to require prompt payment when due of all other sums so secured or to declare default for failure to so pay.

11. The Trustee shall reconvey all or any part of the Property covered by this Deed of Trust to the person entitled thereto, on written request of the Trustor(s) and the Beneficiary, or upon satisfaction of the obligation secured and written request for reconveyance made by the Beneficiary or the person entitled thereto.

required by law, Trustee, without demand on Trustor, shall sell the Property on the date and at the time and place designated in said notice of sale, either as a whole or in separate parcels, and in such order as it may determine (but subject to any statutory right of Trustor to direct the order in which the Property, if consisting of several known lots or parcels, shall be sold), at public auction to the highest bidder, the purchase price payable in lawful money of the United States at the time of sale. The person conducting the sale may, for any cause he deems expedient, postpone the sale from time to time until it shall be completed and, in every such case, notice of postponement shall be given by public declaration thereof by such person at the time and place last appointed for the sale; provided, if the sale is postponed for longer than one day beyond the day designated in the notice of sale, notice thereof shall be given in the same manner as the original notice of sale. Trustee shall execute and deliver to the purchaser its deed conveying the Property so sold, but without any covenant of warranty, express or implied. The recitals in the deed of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, including Beneficiary, may bid at the sale. Trustee shall apply the proceeds of the sale to payment of: (1) the costs and expenses of exercising the power of sale and of the sale, including the payment of the Trustee's and attorneys' fees; (2) the cost of any evidence of title procured in connection with such sale and revenue stamps on Trustee's deed; (3) all sums expended under the terms hereof; not then repaid, with accrued interest at the rate specified in the Note from date of expenditure; (4) all other sums then secured hereby; and (5) the remainder, if any, to the person or persons legally entitled thereto, or the Trustee, in its discretion, may deposit the balance of such proceeds with the County Clerk of the county in which the sale took place (or clerk of the applicable District Court with jurisdiction).

14. Trustor agrees to surrender possession of the hereinabove described Property to the purchaser at the aforesaid sale, immediately after such sale, in the event such possession has not previously been surrendered by Trustor

15. The power of sale conferred by this Deed of Trust is not an exclusive remedy.

16. In the event of the absence, death, incapacity, disability, or resignation of Trustee, or at the discretion of the Beneficiary, Beneficiary may appoint in writing a successor trustee, and upon the recording of such appointment in the records of the County Recorder of the County in which the Property is located, the successor trustee shall be vested with all powers of the original trustee. The trustee is not obligated to notify any party hereto of pending sale under any other deed of trust (excluding this Deed of Trust) or of an action or proceeding in which Trustor(s), Trustee, or Beneficiary shall be a party. Trustee accepts the trust described herein when this Deed of Trust, duly executed and acknowledged, is made a public record as provided by law

17. This Deed of Trust applies to, inures to the benefit of, and is binding not only on the parties hereto, but on his/her/their heirs, devisees, legatees, administrators, executors, and assigns. All obligations of Trustor hereunder are joint and several. The term Beneficiary shall mean the holder and owner of the Note secured hereby, whether or not named as Beneficiary herein. The Beneficiary named herein shall have the right, without notice to Trustor, to assign its rights hereunder to any investor or participant in the Loan as security or otherwise.

18. This Deed of Trust shall be deemed a security agreement, as defined in the Uniform Commercial Code as adopted and amended by the State of Utah. The remedies for any violation of the covenants, terms and conditions of the agreements contained herein shall be as prescribed (i) herein, or (ii) by general law, or (iii) by the specific statutory consequences now or hereafter enacted, and specified in the Uniform Commercial Code as enacted by the State of Utah, all at Beneficiary's sole election. Trustor and Beneficiary agree that the filing of any financing statement in the records normally having to do with personal property shall not be construed as impairing the hereby stated intention of the parties that everything used in connection with the construction, management, maintenance and production of income from the Property together with all other rights and property described herein and comprising the secured property shall at all times and for all purposes in all proceedings, both legal and equitable, be regarded as part of the Property, whether physically attached or specifically identified or not.

19. As further security for the payment of all indebtedness and performance of all obligations secured hereby, Trustor irrevocably and absolutely assigns to Beneficiary, the rents, issues, profits and proceeds of contracts of the Property, together with all future Leases, profits and contracts, and any and all extensions, renewals and replacements hereof. However, as long as no default shall exist in any obligation secured hereby, Trustor may collect assigned rents and profits as the same shall fall due. All rents or profits receivable from or in respect to the Property which Trustor shall be permitted to collect hereunder shall be received by it in trust to pay the usual and reasonable operating expenses of, and the taxes upon, the Property and the payment of all sums secured hereby. Upon the occurrence of any default in payment of any indebtedness or performance of any obligation secured hereby, all rights of the Trustor to collect and receive rents and profits shall wholly and immediately terminate without notice, and Beneficiary shall thereafter have the absolute right to all such rents and profits. The entering upon and taking possession of the Property, the collection of any such rents, issues, and profits, or the proceeds of fire and other insurance policies, or compensation or awards for any taking or damage of the Property, and the application or release thereof as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice. In addition to, and not in limitation of the foregoing, Beneficiary shall have the right to petition the Court of appropriate jurisdiction for the appointment of a Receiver of the rents, issues and profits of the Property and shall have in addition to the rights and powers customarily given to and exercised by such receiver, the right to enter upon and take possession of the Property and manage the same with all rights and options in regard thereto available to Trustor. Trustor expressly waives the posting of bond by such receiver, and waives any challenge to a proposed receiver based on affiliation with Beneficiary.

20. This Deed of Trust shall be construed according to the laws of the State of Utah.

21. The undersigned Trustor requests that a copy of any notice of default and of any notice of sale hereunder be mailed via certified or registered mail (postage prepaid) to the address of Trustor hereinbefore set forth.
