That the default which has occurred is the breach of obligations under the Trust Deed and Note which includes the failure of the Trustors and subsequent owners if any, to pay the monthly installments when due as set forth in the Note. Under the provisions of the Promissory Note and Trust Deed, the principal balance is accelerated and now due, together with accruing interest, late charges, costs and trustees' and attorneys' fees. There is also due all of the expenses and fees of these foreclosure proceedings.

The Successor Trustee declares all sums secured thereby immediately due and payable and elects to sell the property described in the Trust Deed. The default is subject to reinstatement in accordance with Utah law. All reinstatements, assumptions or payoffs must be in lawful money of the United States of America, or certified funds. Personal Checks will not be accepted.

Notice is also given that despite any possible reduced payment arrangement agreed to by the Beneficiary and/or the Beneficiary's agent, hereafter, the Beneficiary, and/or Beneficiary's agent, does not necessarily intend to instruct the Successor Trustee to defer giving the notice of sale and completing foreclosure beyond the earliest time legally allowed, unless the Beneficiary specifically agrees otherwise in writing.

This is an attempt to foreclose a security instrument and any information obtained will be used for that purpose.
