ARTICLE III

MEMBERS

3.01. Annual Meetings. The annual meeting of members shall be held on the second Saturday in August each year at 11:00 a.m., beginning with the year following the year in which the Amended Bylaws are executed, for the purpose of electing Trustees and transacting such other business as may come before the meeting. If the election of Trustees shall not be held on the day designated herein for the annual meeting of the members, or at any adjournment thereof, the Board of Trustees shall cause the election to be held at a special meeting of the members to be convened as soon thereafter as may be convenient. The Board of Trustees may from time to time by resolution change the date and time for the annual meeting of the members.

3.02. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the members may be called by the Board of Trustees, the President, or upon the written request of members holding not less than twenty percent (20%) of the Total Votes of the Association, such written request to state the purpose or purposes of the meeting and to be delivered to the Board of Trustees or the President.

3.03. Notice of Meeting. The Board of Trustees may designate any place in Iron County, State of Utah, as the place of meeting for any annual meeting. Any special meeting called by the Board may be in Iron County, Utah or the urban area of Las Vegas, Nevada. A Waiver of Notice signed by all members may designate any place, either within or without the State of Utah, as the place for holding such meeting. If no designation is made, or if a special meeting is otherwise called, the place of the meeting shall be at the principal office of the Association.

3.04. Notice of Meeting. The Board of Trustees shall cause written or printed notice of the time, place and purpose of all meetings of the members (whether annual or special) to be delivered, not more than fifty (50) nor less than ten (10) days prior to the meeting, to each member of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the U.S. mail addressed to the member at his registered address, with first class postage thereon prepaid. Each member shall register with the Association such member's current mailing address for purposes of notice hereunder. Such registered address may be changed from time to time by notice in writing to the Association. If no address is registered with the Association, a member's Unit address shall be deemed to be his registered address for purposes of notice hereunder.

3.05. Members of Record. Upon purchasing a Condominium in the Project, each Owner shall promptly furnish to the Association a certified copy of the record instrument by which ownership of such Condominium has been vested in such owner, which copy shall be maintained in the records of the Association. For the purpose of determining members entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of the members, or any adjournment thereof, the Board of Trustees may designate a record date which shall not be more than fifty (50) nor less than ten (10) days prior to the meeting for determining members entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of the members. If no record date is designated, the date on which notice of the meeting is mailed shall be deemed to be the record date for determining members entitled to notice of or to vote at the meeting. The persons or entities appearing in the records of the Association on such record date as the Owners of record of Condominiums in the Project shall be deemed to be the members of record entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting of the members.

3.06. Quorum. At any meeting of the members, the presence of members holding, or holders of proxies entitled to cast more than fifty percent (50%) of the total votes of the Association shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the event a quorum is not present at a meeting, the members present (whether represented in person or by proxy), though less than a quorum, may adjourn the meeting to a later day. Notice thereof shall be delivered to the members as provided above. At the reconvened meeting, the members and proxy holders present shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

3.07. Proxies. At each meeting of the members, each member entitled to vote shall be entitled to vote in person or by proxy; provided, however, that the right to vote by proxy shall exist only where the instrument authorizing such proxy to act shall have been executed by the member himself or by his attorney thereunto duly authorized in writing. If a membership is jointly held, the instrument authorizing a proxy to act must have been executed by all holders of such membership or their attorneys thereunto duly authorized in writing. Such instrument authorizing a proxy to act shall be delivered at the beginning of the meeting to the Secretary of the Association or to such other officer or person who may be acting as secretary of the meeting. The secretary of the meeting shall enter a record of all such proxies in the minutes of the meeting.

3.08. Votes. With respect to each matter (except the election of Trustees) submitted to a vote of the members, each member entitled to vote at the meeting shall have the right to cast, in person or by proxy, the number of votes appertaining to the Condominium of such member, as shown in the Declaration. The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the members present or represented by proxy at a meeting at which a quorum was initially present shall be necessary for the adoption of any matter voted on by the members, unless a greater proportion is required by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, the Declaration or Utah law. At each election of Trustees, each member entitled to vote at such election shall have the right to accumulate his votes by giving one candidate as many votes as shall equal the number of votes relating to his membership, or by distributing such votes on the same principle among any number of candidates. The election of Trustees shall be by secret ballot. If a membership is jointly held, all or any holders thereof may attend each meeting of the members, but such holders must act unanimously to cast the votes relating to their joint membership.

3.09. Waiver of Irregularities. All inaccuracies and/or irregularities in calls or notices of meetings and in the manner of voting, form or proxies, and/or method of ascertaining members present shall be deemed waived if no objection thereto is made at the meetings.

3.10. Informal Action by Members. Any action that is required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the members may be taken without a meeting, if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken shall be signed by all of the members entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof.

ARTICLE IV

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

4.01. General Powers. The property, affairs and business of the Association shall be managed by its Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees may exercise all of the powers of the Association, whether derived from law or the Articles of Incorporation, except such powers as are by law, by the Articles of Incorporation, by these Bylaws or by the Declaration vested solely in the members. The Board of Trustees may by written contract delegate, in whole or in part, to a professional management organization or person such of its duties, responsibilities, functions and powers as are properly delegable.

4.02. Number, Tenure and Qualifications. The number of Trustees of the Association shall be three (3). The members shall elect, in accordance with principles of cumulative voting, three (3) Trustees to serve as follows: the candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected to serve for a term of three (3) years; the candidate receiving the second highest number of votes shall be elected to serve for a term of two (2) years; and the candidate receiving the third highest number of votes shall be elected to serve for a term of one (1) year. At each annual meeting, the members shall elect one Trustee to fill the then expiring term and to serve for a term of three (3) years. All Trustees must be members of the Association.

4.03. Regular Meetings. The regular annual meeting of the Board of Trustees shall be held without other notice than this Bylaw immediately after, and at the same place as, the annual meeting of the members. The Board of Trustees may provide by resolution the time and place, within Iron County, State of Utah, or the urban area of Las Vegas, Nevada for the holding of additional regular meetings without other notice than such resolution.

4.04. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Trustees may be called by or at the request of any Trustee. The person or persons authorized to call special meetings of the Board of Trustees may fix any place, within Iron County, State of Utah, or the urban area of Las Vegas, Nevada, as the place for holding any special meeting of the Board of Trustees called by such person or persons. Notice of any special meeting shall be given at least ten (10) days prior thereto by written notice delivered personally, or mailed to each Trustee at his registered address, or by fax or overnight delivery service. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the U.S. mail so addressed, with first class postage thereon prepaid. If notice be given by fax or overnight delivery service, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when the fax or overnight delivery service is delivered to the fax or overnight delivery service. Any Trustee may waive notice of a meeting.

4.05. Quorum and Manner of Acting. A majority of the then authorized number of Trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Trustees. The act of a majority of the Trustees present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Trustees. The Trustees shall act only as a Board, and individual Trustees shall have no powers as such.

4.06. Compensation. No Trustee shall receive compensation for any services that he may render to the Association as a Trustee; provided, however, that a Trustee may be reimbursed for expenses incurred in performance of his duties as a Trustee to the extent such expenses are approved by the Board of Trustees and (except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws) may be compensated for services rendered to the Association other than in his capacity as a Trustee.

4.07. Resignation and Removal. (a) A Trustee may resign at any time by delivering a written resignation to either the President or the Board of Trustees. Unless otherwise specified therein, such resignation shall take effect upon delivery. (b) Any Trustee may be removed at any time, for or without cause, by the affirmative vote of sixty percent (60%) of the Total Votes of the Association at a special meeting of the members duly called for such purpose. (c) Any Trustee who is not present for two consecutive meetings of the Board of Trustees is automatically removed from office unless the Board accepts a written request for an excused absence.

4.08. Vacancies and Newly Created Trusteeships. If vacancies shall occur in the Board of Trustees by reason of the death or resignation of a Trustee, or if the authorized number of Trustees shall be increased, the Trustees then in office shall continue to act, and such vacancies or newly created Trusteeships shall be filled by a vote of the Trustees then in office, though less than a quorum, in any way approved by such Trustees at the meeting. Any vacancies in the Board of Trustees occurring by reason of the removal of a Trustee may be filled by election by the members at the meeting at which such Trustee is removed. Any Trustee elected or appointed hereunder to fill a vacancy shall serve for the unexpired term of his predecessor or for the term of the newly created Trusteeship, as the case may be.

4.09. Informal Action by Trustees. Any action that is required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Trustees may be taken without a meeting, if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken shall be signed by all of the Trustees.

In the event of failure to choose officers at such regular annual meeting of the Board of Trustees, officers may be chosen at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Trustees. Each such officer (whether chosen at a regular annual meeting of the Board of Trustees or otherwise) shall hold his office until the next ensuing regular annual meeting of the Board of Trustees and until his successor shall have been chosen and qualified, or until his death, or until his resignation, disqualification or removal in the manner provided in these Bylaws, whichever first occurs. Any one person may hold any two or more of such offices; provided that the President may not also be the Secretary. No person holding two or more offices shall act in or execute any instrument in the capacity of more than one office. The President, the Vice President, the Secretary and the Treasurer shall be and remain Trustees of the Association during the entire term of their respective offices. No other officer need be a Trustee.

5.03. Subordinate Officers. The Board of Trustees may from time to time appoint such other officers or agents as it may deem advisable, each of whom shall have such title, hold office for such period, have such authority and perform such duties as the Board of Trustees may from time to time delegate to any officer or agent the power to appoint any such subordinate officers or agents and to prescribe their respective titles, terms of office, authorities and duties. Subordinate officers need not be members or Trustees of the Association.

5.04. Resignation and Removal. Any officer may resign at any time by delivering a written resignation to the President or the Board of Trustees. 5.09. The Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody and control of the funds of the Association, subject to the action of the Board of Trustees, and shall, when requested by the President to do so, report the state of the finances of the Association at each annual meeting of the members and at any meeting of the Board of Trustees. He shall perform such other duties as the Board of Trustees may require of him.

5.10. Compensation. No officer shall receive compensation for any services that he may render to the Association as an officer; provided, however, that an officer may be reimbursed for expenses incurred in performance of his duties as an officer to the extent such expenses are approved by the Board of Trustees and (except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws) may be compensated for services rendered to the Association other than in his capacity as an officer.

The Board of Trustees may from time to time by resolution designate such committees as it may deem appropriate in carrying out its duties, responsibilities, functions and powers. The membership of each such committee designated hereunder shall include at least two (2) Trustees. No committee member shall receive compensation for services that he may render to the Association as a committee member; provided, however, that a committee member may be reimbursed for expenses incurred in performance of his duties as a committee member to the extent such expenses are approved by the Board of Trustees and (except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws) may be compensated for services rendered to the Association other than in his capacity as a committee member.

ARTICLE VII

INDEMNIFICATION

7.01. Indemnification of Third Party Actions. The Association shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Association) by reason of the fact that he is or was a Trustee, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, finds and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Association. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by an adverse judgment, order or settlement, conviction or upon plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Association and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

7.02. Indemnification of Association Actions. The Association shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Association to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a Trustee or officer of the Association or is or was serving at the request of the Association as a director, Trustee, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit, if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Association and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Association, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

7.03. Determination. To the extent that a person has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Sections 7.01 or 7.02 hereof, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith. Any other indemnification under Sections 7.01 or 7.02 hereof shall be made by the Association only upon a determination that indemnification of the person is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth respectively in Sections 7.01 or 7.02 hereof.

00494833 Bk00954 Pg00494

Such determination shall be made either (i) by the Board of Trustees by a majority vote of disinterested Trustees, or (ii) by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the Owners by the affirmative vote of at least fifty percent (50%) of the Total Votes of the Association at any meeting duly called for such purpose.

7.04. Advances. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding as contemplated in this Article may be paid by the Association in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the person to repay such amount or amounts unless it ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the Association as authorized by this Article.

7.05. Scope of Indemnification. The indemnification provided for by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any provision in the Association's Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, agreements, vote of disinterested members or Trustees or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. The indemnification authorized by this Article shall apply to all present and future Trustees, officers, employees or agents of the Association and shall continue as to such persons who cease to be Trustees, officers, employees or agents of the Association and shall insure to the benefit of the heirs and personal representatives of all such persons who may be entitled as a matter of law.

7.06. Insurance. The Association may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who was or is a Trustee, officer, employee or agent of the Association or who was or is serving at the request of the Association as a Trustee, director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, entity or enterprise (whether for profit or not for profit), against any liability asserted against him or incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Association would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the laws of the State of Utah, as the same may hereafter be amended or modified.

7.07. Payments and Premiums. All indemnification payments made, and all insurance premiums for insurance maintained pursuant to this Article shall constitute expenses of the Association and shall be paid with funds from the Common Expense Fund referred to in the Declaration.

ARTICLE VIII

8.02. Annual Budget. Annual Assessments shall be determined on a fiscal year basis. At least thirty (30) days before the beginning of the fiscal year, the Association shall prepare or cause to be prepared and furnished to each Owner an operating budget for the upcoming fiscal year. The budget shall itemize the estimated expenses for such fiscal year, anticipated receipts (if any), and any deficit or surplus carried forward from the prior operating period. The budget shall serve as the supporting document for the Annual Assessment for the upcoming fiscal year and as the major guideline under which the Association shall be operated during such annual period. 9.01. Rules and Regulations. The Board of Trustees may from time to time adopt, amend, repeal and enforce reasonable rules and regulations governing the use and operation of the Project, to the extent that such rules and regulations are not inconsistent with the rights and duties set forth in the Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration or these Bylaws. The members shall be provided with copies of all rules and regulations adopted by the Board of Trustees and with copies of amendments and revisions thereof.

ARTICLE X

AMENDMENTS

10.01. Amendments. Except as otherwise provided by law, by the Articles of Incorporation, by the Declaration or by these Bylaws, these Bylaws may be amended, altered or repealed and new Bylaws may be made and adopted by the members upon the affirmative vote of at least sixty-seven percent (67%) of the Total Votes of the Association; provided, however, that such action shall not be effective unless and until a written instrument setting forth (i) the amended, altered, repealed or new bylaw, (ii) the number of votes cast in favor of such action, and (iii) the Total Votes of the Association, shall have been executed and verified by the current President of the Association and recorded in the office of the County Recorder of Iron County, State of Utah.
