1. Grant of Easements. Trust Lands, Iron Mountain Holding, and ASCU hereby grant to each other and to Iron Mountain the following perpetual, non-exclusive, reciprocal easements over, across, and under the Trust Lands Property and Iron Mountain Property, as the case may be, for use by them, their successors and assigns, and by each of their tenants, subtenants, suppliers, customers, patrons, employees, licensees, concessionaires, agents, contractors, and invitees to whom the grantee in question may choose to extend or delegate such use rights (collectively "Permittees"):

(b) Non-exclusive easements for the benefit of and appurtenant to the Party's property for the purpose of ingress and egress over and across the grantor's property to and from the Party's property by the Party or Permittees and the vehicular traffic thereof, including, without limitation, non-exclusive easements for roadways and entryways within the Phased Development (collectively the "Roadways") and improvements associated with the Roadways, for example, gutters, curbing, and sidewalks, (the "Roadway Improvements") which Roadways and Roadway Improvements are as initially depicted and described on attached Exhibit "D" or as may, from time to time, be reasonably necessary or appropriate or more particularly described as "roadway easements" and "roadway improvement easements" in any development plan contemplated under the Phased Development Agreement.

(c) Non-exclusive easements for the benefit of and appurtenant to the Party's property over, across, and under the grantor's property, for the conveyance of water, all as initially depicted and described on attached Exhibit "D" or as may, from time to time, be reasonably necessary or appropriate or be more particularly described as "water line easements" in any development plan contemplated under the Phased Development Agreement, together with such easements as may be reasonably necessary to maintain, remove, repair or replace said water pipes and systems.

(d) Non-exclusive easements for the benefit of and appurtenant to the Party's property for conveyance of electricity over, across, and under portions of the grantor's property, all as initially depicted and described on attached Exhibit "D" or as may, from time to time, be reasonably necessary or appropriate or be more particularly described as "electric line easements" in any development plan contemplated under the Phased Development Agreement, together with such easements as may be reasonably necessary to maintain, remove, repair or replace said of electric power conduits, lines, and wires.

(e) Non-exclusive easements for the benefit of and appurtenant to the Party's property for telephone and communication lines over, across, and under portions of the grantor's property, all as initially depicted and described on attached Exhibit "D" or as may, from time to time, be reasonably necessary or appropriate or be more particularly described as "telephone and communication line easements" in any development plan contemplated under the Phased Development Agreement, together with such easements as may be reasonably necessary to maintain, remove, repair or replace said of the telephone and communication lines.

(f) Non-exclusive easements for the benefit of and appurtenant to each portion of the Party's property for the conveyance of natural gas over, across, and under portions of the grantor's property, all as initially depicted and described on attached Exhibit "D" or as may, from time to time, be reasonably necessary or appropriate or be more particularly described as "gas line easements" in any development plan contemplated under the Phased Development Agreement, together with such easements as may be reasonably necessary to maintain, remove, repair or replace said of gas pipes and systems.

(g) Non-exclusive easements for the benefit of and appurtenant to each portion of the Party's property for sewage disposal over, across, and under portions of the grantor's property, all as initially depicted and described on attached Exhibit "D" or as may, from time to time, be reasonably necessary or appropriate or be more particularly described as "sewer line easements" in any development plan contemplated under the Phased Development Agreement, together with such easements as may be reasonably necessary to maintain, remove, repair or replace said of sewers.

Until such time that the specific location for each such easement is determined by the Parties and a complete legal description for such easement is recorded, each easement created and granted by this Agreement shall be a "floating easement" affecting each and every portion of the Development Properties and appurtenant to every portion of each Party's property. Upon the determination of the final location for an easement as provided herein, the Parties shall amend this Agreement, in writing, by executing an amendment hereof and recording a specific legal description for each such easement. Upon the completion of the Parties' determination as to the final locations for the above-described easements, the Parties shall execute such instruments as may be required to terminate the "floating easements" created and granted by this Agreement, leaving remaining only the easements as specifically described by the recorded amendments of this Agreement.

00517321 BK01181 P000193

All of the above-described easements shall be sufficient in width to meet the requirements of the Summit County Snyderville Basin Development Code for the purposes intended. None of the easements and rights granted or created may be transferred, assigned, or encumbered except as appurtenances to the applicable portions of the Trust Lands Property or Iron Mountain Property, as the case may be.

The Parties intend and agree that all of the easements granted hereunder shall survive any termination of the Phased Development Agreement or Phased Development, or both. If for any reason the Phased Development Agreement or Phased Development, or both, are terminated prior to the recordation of the final legal description of any easement created and granted by this Agreement, Trust Lands shall have the right, but not the obligation, to determine the final location of such easement; provided however, that such easement shall be located in the general location of the easement as initially depicted in attached Exhibit "D" or such other location as shall be reasonably necessary therefor, or such other location described in any development plans affecting any such easements, as the case may be.

In any event and in the event that the Phased Development Agreement or Phased Development, or both, are terminated as provided above, the Parties shall have the right to reasonably control access to and use of all of the above-described easements to ensure that the same are consistent with the "Base Densities" or "Base Density Entitlements," as both terms are defined in the Phased Development Agreement, as appropriate under the circumstances, and to the extent that any such use or access shall not be for uses more burdensome than those contemplated under the Phased Development Agreement.

2. Reserved Rights, Non-Interference. Each grantor reserves the right to occupy, use, and have rights of ingress and egress on such grantor's property for all purposes not inconsistent with the rights granted herein and so long as such use does not unreasonably interfere with the use of any easement granted hereunder by the holders of the dominant tenements. For the purposes of the easements and rights granted or created herein, the property benefited will constitute the dominant estate, and the particular area in the Development Properties which respectively is burdened by such easements and rights will constitute the servient estate. The use by the holders of the dominant tenements of the easement granted herein shall be limited to such uses as are described herein, which uses shall be made in such a manner as will least interfere with the use of the servient tenements by the owners thereof. To that end, each grantee agrees that it shall not at any time obstruct or otherwise interfere with its grantor, interfere with any representative or agent of its grantor who is maintaining or otherwise performing services with respect to the grantor's property, or otherwise interfere with its grantor's use of the grantor's property except for the purposes of constructing and/or maintaining the easements as provided herein.

3. Running of Benefits and Burdens. All provisions, agreements, rights, powers, covenants, and obligations contained in this Agreement, including the benefits and burdens, shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto, their respective successors, assigns, subsidiaries, representatives, lessees, sublessees, and all other persons acquiring either tenement, or any portion thereof or interest therein. All of the provisions of this Agreement shall be covenants running with the land, both for the benefit of each tenement and as a burden upon each, pursuant to the applicable laws of the State of Utah.

4. Breach Shall Not Terminate. It is expressly agreed that no breach of this Agreement shall entitle any Party to cancel, rescind, or otherwise to terminate this Agreement or to affect the easements granted hereunder, but such limitation shall not affect in any manner any other rights or remedies which such party may have hereunder by reason of any breach of this Agreement. Any breach of any covenants or restrictions as contained herein shall not defeat or render invalid the lien of any mortgage or deed of trust made in good faith for value, but such covenants or restrictions shall be binding upon and be effective against such owner of any of said property or any portion thereof whose title thereto is acquired by foreclosure, trustee sale, or otherwise.

5. Attorneys' Fees; Mediation. A Party may enforce this instrument by appropriate action, and the prevailing Party in such litigation shall be entitled to recover its costs and reasonable attorneys' fees. Any dispute arising in connection with or in any way involving this Agreement shall be resolved by submission of the dispute to nonbinding mediation under the following provisions. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing, the mediation shall take place in Salt Lake City, Utah. If the parties cannot agree on a mediator, each party shall select one mediator and the two mediators so chosen shall choose a third mediator. Unless otherwise specified herein, the parties shall jointly bear all costs of mediation.

6. Non-Severability. In the event that any grant or provision of this Agreement shall be held invalid and unenforceable, such provision shall be severable from, and such invalidity and unenforceability shall not be construed to have any effect on, the remaining provisions of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Declaration and Grant of Reciprocal Easements and Agreement is made and executed the day and year first written above.
