These covenants are to run with the land and shall be binding on all parties and all persons claiming under them until January 1, 1968, at which time said covenants shall be automatically extended for successive periods of 10 years unless by vote of a majority of the then owners of the lots it is agreed to change said covenants in whole or in part.

If the parties hereto, or any of them or their heirs or assigns, shall violate or attempt to violate any of the covenants herein it shall be lawful for any other person or persons owning any real property situated in said development or subdivision to prosecute any proceedings at law or in equity against the person or persons violating or attempting to violate any such covenant and either to prevent him or them from doing so or to recover damages or other dues for such violation.

Invalidation of any one of these covenants by judgement or court order shall in no wise affect any of the other provisions which shall remain in full force and effect.

All lots in the tract shall be known and described as residential lots. No structures shall be erected, altered, placed or permitted to remain on any residential building plot other than one detached single-family dwelling not to exceed one and one-half stories in height and a private garage for not more than 3 cars.

No building shall be erected, placed, or altered on any building plot in this subdivision until the building plans, specifications, and plot plan showing the location of such building have been approved in writing as to conformity and harmony of external design with existing structures in the subdivision, and as to location of the building with respect to topography and finished ground elevation, by a committee composed of C. R. Mitchell, Margaret Mitchell, W. G. Swenson and Ruby Swenson, or by a representative designated by a majority of the members of said committee, the remaining member, or members, shall have full authority to approve or disapprove such design and location, or to designate a representative with like authority. In the event said committee, or its designated representative fails to approve or disapprove such design and location within 30 days after said plans and specifications have been submitted to it or, in any event, of no suit to enjoin the errection of such building or the making of such alterations had been commenced prior to the completion thereof, such approval will not be required and this covenant will be deemed to have been fully complied with.

Neither the member of such committe, nor its designated representative shall be entitled to any compensation for services performed pursuant to this covenant. The powers and duties of such committee, and its designated representative, shall cease on and after January 1, 1960. Thereafter the approval described in this covenant shall not be required unless, prior to said date and effective thereon, a written instrument shall be executed by the then record owners of a majority of the lots in this subdivision and duly recorded appointing a representative, or representatives, who shall thereafter exercise the same powers previously exercised by said committee.

No building other than a detached garage or other out-building located 60 feet or more from the front lot line, shall be located nearer than 6 feet to any side lot line.

No residential structure shall be erected or placed on any building plot, which has area of less that 6500 square feet or a width of less that 50 feet at the front building setback line.

No noxious or offensive trade or activity shall be carried on upon any lot nor shall anything be done thereon which may be or become an annoyance or muisance to the neighborhood.

No trailer, basement, tent, shack, garage, barn or other out-building erected in the tract shall be used at any time as a residence temporarily or permanently, nor shall any structure of a temporary character be used as a residence.

The ground floor area of the main structure, exclusive of one-story open porches and garages, shall be not less than 800 square feet.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF; the said parties to this agreement have hereunto signed their names this 30th day of December, 1955.
