H. Morgan and E. J. Morgan of the County of Davis in the State of Utah the following described real estate situate, lying and being in the County of Davis and in the State of Utah to-wit:

The original document is a handwritten deed. The text is written in cursive script, with some words capitalized for emphasis or clarity. The handwriting is clear and legible throughout the document.

Lots Nos. one (1) and Two (2) and the West Half of the North East Quarter ($\frac{1}{2}$ of the N.E. $\frac{1}{4}$); Lots Nos. Three (3) and Four (4) and the West Half of the South East Quarter ($\frac{1}{2}$ of the S.E. $\frac{1}{4}$); the North half of the North West Quarter ($\frac{1}{2}$ of the N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$) and the South East Quarter of the North West Quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$ of the N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$); and the East Half of the South West Quarter ($\frac{1}{2}$ of the S.W. $\frac{1}{4}$) of Section No. Twenty-five (25) in Township No. Four (4) North of Range No. One (1) West of the Salt Lake Meridian, containing, according to the United States Survey thereof, four hundred and forty-four (444) and $\frac{65}{100}$ acres, more or less.

Excepting and reserving to said Union Pacific Railroad Company, its successors and assigns, First: All coal and other minerals within or underlying said lands.

Second: The exclusive right to prospect in and upon said land for coal and other minerals therein, or which may be supposed to be therein, and to mine for and remove, from said land, all coal and other minerals which may be found thereon by any one. Third: The right of ingress, egress and regress upon said land to prospect for, mine and remove any and all such coal or other minerals, and the right to use so much of said land as may be convenient or necessary for the right of way to and from such prospect places or mines and for the convenient and proper operation of such prospect places, mines and for roads and approaches thereto or for removal therefrom of coal, mineral machinery or other material. Fourth: The right to said Union Pacific Railroad Company to maintain and operate its railroad in its present form of construction, and to make any change in the form of construction or method of operation of said railroad.

To Have and to Hold, subject to the said exceptions, reservations and conditions, the said premises with all the rights and appurtenances thereto belonging unto the said J. H. Morgan and E. T. Morgan grantees their heirs and assigns forever, and the said Union Pacific Railroad Company doth hereby covenant with the said grantee that, at the making of this instrument it is well seized of the said premises as of a good and indefeasible estate in fee, and hath good right to sell and convey the same, and that it will warrant and defend the title to said premises unto the said grantees, their heirs and assigns forever against the lawful claims of all persons whomsoever.

Excepting as against all taxes and assessments levied upon said premises since the Fourteenth day of April 1890, and excepting against any rights, liens or incumbrances created or permitted by any other person than the said grantor, since the Fourteenth day of April 1890.

And Whereas, said Union Pacific Railroad Company did, on the 1st day of July, 1897, execute and deliver to The Mercantile Trust Company of New York, a certain mortgage deed wherein said Railroad Company conveyed to the said The Mercantile Trust Company, as Trustee, for the uses and purposes therein mentioned, amongst other things, the lands hereinbefore described; and

Whereas, said Union Pacific Railroad Company, with the consent of the said The Mercantile Trust Company, Trustee under the mortgage aforesaid, has sold and conveyed, as above set forth, the real estate hereinbefore described, unto the said grantee for and in consideration of the sum paid as aforesaid to Union Pacific Railroad Company by said grantee, which sum of money has been paid to said The Mercantile Trust Company in its capacity as Trustee, or has been otherwise properly paid or accounted for, under said mortgage, for the uses and purposes mentioned in said mortgage deed.

Now, therefore, Know all men by these Presents, that said The Mercantile Trust Company, Trustee of the aforesaid mortgage deed, in consideration of the premises and of the payment as aforesaid of said sum so paid by said Railroad Company, ^{to said Trust Company} for the uses and purposes aforesaid, doth hereby Remise, Release and forever quit claim subject to the exceptions, reservations and conditions above written, unto the said J. H. Morgan and E. T. Morgan the real estate described aforesaid to be held by the said grantee free and exempt from all liens, incumbrances and charges of said mortgage deed of the first day of July, 1897.

In Witness Whereof, the said grantor, Union Pacific Railroad Company, has caused these presents to be sealed with its corporate seal, and to be signed by its President, attested by its Secretary, and countersigned by its Land Commissioner and its general Auditor, and said The Mercantile Trust Company, under said mortgage deed of July 1st, 1897, has caused these presents to be sealed with its corporate seal, signed by its Vice-President, who is thenceforth duly authorized and empowered by the by-laws of the company and by resolution of its Board of Directors, this ninth day of May A.
