

The United States of America

To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas, by the Act of Congress, approved July 1, 1862, as amended by the act of July 2, 1864, "to aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraphic line from the Missouri River to the Pacific Ocean" and to secure to the Government the use of the same for postal, military and other purposes, authority is given to the Central Pacific Railroad Company, to construct a railroad and telegraphic line under certain conditions and stipulations as expressed in said acts; provision is made for granting to the said Company every alternate section of public land designated by odd numbers to the amount of ten alternate sections per mile on each side of the said railroad, on the line thereof and within the limits of forty miles on each side of said road, not sold, reserved, or otherwise disposed of by the United States, and to which a Pre-emption or Homestead claim may not have attached at the time the line of said road is definitely fixed.

And whereas, an official statement bearing date November 3, 1869 from the Secretary of the Interior, has been filed in this office showing that the line of said railroad and telegraphic from Ogden in the Territory of Utah to Sacramento City, State of California, has been constructed and fully completed and equipped in the manner provided by the acts of Congress relative to the Pacific Railroad and Telegraphic Line; and the Vice President of the said Central Pacific Railroad Company, has applied for a conveyance of the title to the lands granted to said Company by the said Act of Congress of July 1, 1862 and July 2, 1864.

And whereas certain tracts of lands have been selected under the acts aforesaid by William H. Miller, the duly authorized agent for the said Central Pacific Railroad Company, as shown by his original list of selections, dated October 29, 1870, certified, February 11, 1881, by the Register and Receiver at Salt Lake City, Utah Territory.
